Help Her Be Brave

Discover Your Place in the Pro-Life Movement

AMY FORD

What if we lived in a world where every woman with an unplanned pregnancy always felt empowered to choose life for her unborn baby? To create that kind of change, it will take all of us. As the Church, we can play a powerful role in making abortion unthinkable. With Help Her Be Brave, you can discover your part in saving lives and find your pro-life passion.

This includes how to:

- Learn practical ways to get involved using your unique gifts and talents
- Find women with unexpected pregnancies and connect them to support
- Use your influence and be a voice for the voiceless
- Make your church a refuge for abortion vulnerable women

If abortion became illegal today, the Church isn't ready to help women practically, spiritually and emotionally. It's time to change that. We can't look away any longer. This is our moment for us to stand up and help her be brave.

How to Eat Your Bible

A Simple Approach to Learning and Loving the Word of God

NATE PICKOWICZ

If you're feeling distant from God, could it be because you're ignoring His Word? But maybe you don't know where to start. Maybe the long books and strange names feel overwhelming. Maybe you just don't like reading. Whatever the case, How to Eat Your Bible will help you cultivate an appetite for life-long study of God's Word. Find practical guidance for overcoming the hurdles that have kept you from making Bible study a regular part of your life. You'll also become encouraged to pursue God's Word by learning how other Christians throughout time maintained this crucial practice. Pastor Nate Pickowicz also includes a unique Seven Year Bible Plan so that you can apply what you've learned and continue drawing near to God as you consume His Word.

The Joy Switch

How Your Brain's Secret Circuit Affects Your Relationships--And How You Can Activate it

CHRIS M. COURSEY

Why do we sometimes feel more connected in our relationships than at other times? Perhaps you sometimes find it easy and exciting to spend time with your loved ones—but sometimes, especially when things don't according to plan, you feel incapable of connecting in conversations. You then feel distant from those you love most. What if the answer to remaining connected in relationships has been right under your nose—or, rather, right inside your head all along?

Discover the simple switch in your brain that activates—or deactivates—what you most need for relational connectivity: joy. In The Joy Switch, learn how the simple flip of this brain switch either enables you to remain present for those around you or causes you to become overwhelmed—and ultimately inhibited from being your best self—when problems arise. You'll learn how to maximize your relational brain, how to recognize when your brain's joy switch is flipped, and how to take steps to restore your relational sweet-spot. This book will help you love others and remain fully connected with yourself while being the best version of who you were made to be.

Stop Trying

How to Receive--Not Achieve--Your Real Identity

CARY SCHMIDT

From looking outwardly to please others to looking inwardly to define ourselves, we are all constantly trying to cultivate our identities. What does it mean, therefore, when Christ calls us to lose our selves for His sake?

Discover how through “losing yourself,” you’ll find an identity bolstered with unassailable confidence, strengthened for the challenges of life, and freed from the whims of cultural pressure. It is an identity received, not achieved—it is an identity established in the gospel. In Stop Trying you’ll understand why defining your identity outside of Jesus Christ is ultimately fragile, hollow, and unsatisfying. Become grounded in theology and delight in a dynamic relationship with Jesus Christ that helps you know who you are by knowing Him.

How do you understand you?

PRIMARY AUDIENCE

What Comes Next?

Shaping the Future in an Ever-Changing World - A Guide for Christian Leaders

NICHOLAS SKYTLAND, ALICIA LLEWELLYN, FOREWORD BY WILL MANCINI

Our mission as Christians was the same yesterday as it is today and will be tomorrow. The world, however, is changing faster than ever before, and keeping up feels impossible. The realities of human life—from how we develop relationships to how we use technology to have impact—therefore change rapidly too. It's critical that Christian leaders take this into consideration as they plan for their organizations' future.

In What Comes Next?, strategists and innovation experts Nick Skytland and Ali Llewellyn use the eight elements of their Futures Framework to teach us how to help shape the future, be visionary, and grow our businesses and ministries. This futures-thinking process is a proven solution for executives, entrepreneurs, pastors, and anyone in between who struggles to respond to an ever-changing world.

What if, instead of keeping up with change, you could get ahead of it?

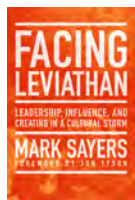

PRIMARY AUDIENCE

Christian leaders in various contexts (churches, mission organizations, nonprofits, parachurch ministries, and business) who feel both anxiety and excitement over the possibilities of the future

NOTABLE FEATURES

- Provides a framework for ministry leaders to process future thinking and where to focus their attention
- Identifies key forces that drive change and how their various intersections create opportunities for leadership

50 Most Important Questions About the Bible

MICHAEL A. RYDELNIK

The Bible was written in a distant land in a different time, which can make its contents confusing for readers today. It's understandable to not understand everything about it. In 50 Most Important Questions about the Bible, you'll find brief but thorough answers to the most commonly asked questions about the Word of God. Dr. Michael Rydelnik brings his knowledge from teaching at Moody Bible Institute and experience as host of the radio program Open Line with Dr. Michael Rydelnik to address each question clearly, thoroughly, and concisely. He addresses topics such as:

- God, Himself
- Jesus' passion on the cross
- Spiritual life and behavior
- The Old Testament
- Biblical prophecy

From people like Cain and Abel to events like creation and Noah's flood, from the Law of Moses to the Holy Spirit, you'll find insightful, biblically-based explanations to help you better understand God's Word.

Discovering God through the Arts

How Every Christian Can Grow Closer to God by Appreciating Beauty & Creativity

TERRY GLASPEY

For many Christians, paintings, films, music, and other forms of art are simply used for wall decoration, entertaining distraction, or worshipful devotion. But what if the arts played a more prominent role in the Christian life?

In Discovering God through the Arts, discover how the arts can be tools for faith-building, life-changing spiritual formation for all Christians. Terry Glaspey, author of 75 Masterpieces Every Christian Should Know, examines:

- How the arts assist us in prayer and contemplation
- How the arts help us rediscover a sense of wonder
- How the arts help us deal with emotions
- How the arts aid theological reflection and so much more.

Let your faith be enriched, and discover how beauty and creativity can draw you nearer to the ultimate Creator.

What does art have to do with faith?

PRIMARY AUDIENCE

General Christian audience who feels as if their walk with God has become stale and are open to using arts/beauty as a means of grace to encounter more of God.

The Characters of Easter

The Villains, Heroes, Cowards, and Crooks Who Witnessed History's Biggest Miracle

DANIEL DARLING

At Easter, the Son of God took on the world's sin and defeated the devil, death, and grave. How is it, then, that history's most glorious moment is surrounded by fearful fishermen, despised tax collectors, marginalized women, feeble politicians, and traitorous friends?

In The Characters of Easter, you'll become acquainted with the unlikely collection of ordinary people who witnessed the miracle of Christ's death and resurrection. Enter their stories and ultimately draw closer to Christ Himself as you encounter His Passion through their experiences. Take a journey back to first-century Palestine and walk in the shoes of legendary people like Simon Peter, Judas, Pilate, John, Mary Magdalene and others.

This book provides a fresh approach to the Lenten season and can be used as a devotional or study for both individuals and groups. Once you've learned about the characters of Easter, meet those who witnessed the birth of Christ in the companion title The Characters of Christmas.

Meet the unlikely people who witnessed history's greatest event.

PRIMARY AUDIENCE

Susie

The Life and Legacy of Susannah Spurgeon, wife of Charles H. Spurgeon

RAY RHODES JR., FOREWORD BY R. ALBERT MOHLER JR.

While many Christians recognize the name of Charles H. Spurgeon, the beloved preacher and writer, few are familiar with the life and legacy of his wife, Susie. Yet Susannah Spurgeon was an accomplished and devout woman of God who had a tremendous ministry in her own right, as well as in support of her husband. She edited and published her husband's sermons, wrote five books, and was instrumental in planting a church. And as her writing attests, she was a warm, personable, and interesting woman.

Ray Rhodes Jr. examines Susannah's life, showing that she was not only the wife of London's most famous preacher, but also a woman who gave all she had in grateful service to the Lord.

Susie is an inspiring and encouraging account of a truly remarkable woman of faith that will delight Spurgeon devotees and fans of Christian biographies alike.

The definitive biography of Susannah Spurgeon

Turning of Days

Lessons from Nature, Season and Spirit

HANNAH ANDERSON

From the beginning, Scripture tells of a God who created the heavens and earth. It tells how he made the sea and land, the rosebud and beetle. But what might the heavens and earth tell us were we to listen to them? What wonders might the birds and flowers share? What might we discover of order, chaos, beauty, and unabashed grace?

Turning of Days beckons you to a world of tree frogs and peach blossoms, mountain springs and dark winter nights—all in search of nature's God. All in harmony with Scripture. Join Hannah Anderson, the author of Humble Roots, as she journeys through the four seasons searching out the spiritual and theological truths woven deep within the natural world. This collection of devotional essays and illustrations will feed your soul, guiding you into a life of observation and awe, a life that sees His glory everywhere.

Walk with Me

Simple Principles for Everyday Disciplemaking

BILL MOWRY

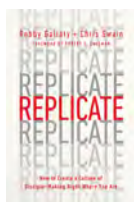

When our hearts are changed by Christ, it's natural that we should want to help others come to know Him too. And while Scripture clearly sets forth how to do so, modern Western society has formalized, professionalized, and systemized discipling to a point that it seems too complicated to practice. What happened to the simple, heart-to-heart ministries of the New Testament?

In Walk with Me, you'll return to the essential biblical practices that help people grow as Christ-followers in simple, slow, and deep ways. Learn how you can connect with your neighbors, coworkers, or anyone you want to reach with the Gospel in ways that are relational and Spirit-led. You'll learn five Kingdom principles that will reshape how you can pass on the faith:

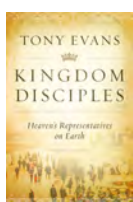

- In heart-to-heart ways
- By keeping it simple
- By going slow
- By building deep
- By living on mission

Have we over complicated, over systematized, and over formalized making disciples?

When Faith is Forbidden

40 Days on the Frontlines with Persecuted Christians

THE VOICE OF THE MARTYRS, AND P. TODD NETTLETON

Spend forty days getting to know your brothers and sisters who have shared in the sufferings of Christ. With When Faith Is Forbidden, you'll journey with the Christians who risk their safety, security, and even lives to follow Jesus. Each daily devotional includes inspiration and encouragement through the story of a persecuted believer. You'll find guided prayer and space for interactive reflection as you grow to understand the realities of living under persecution.

The stories in When Faith Is Forbidden come from Todd Nettleton's own journeys around the world on behalf of The Voice of the Martyrs, who has been supporting persecuted Christians for more than fifty years. Begin each day with a testimony of God's faithfulness to His people and feel connected to those who risk it all for Christ.

THE VOICE OF THE MARTYRS is a nonprofit, interdenominational missions organization dedicated to serving the persecuted church worldwide through practical and spiritual assistance and leading other members of the body of Christ into fellowship with them.

Voice of the Martyrs was founded in 1967 by Pastor Richard Wurmbrand, who was imprisoned for fourteen years in Communist Romania for his faith in Christ; his wife, Sabrina, was imprisoned for three years. In 1965 they were ransomed out of Romania, and soon thereafter they established the global network of missions of which Voice of the Martyrs is a part. They based these missions on Hebrews 13:3.

P. TODD NETTLETON is the Chief of Media Relations and Message Integration for the Voice of the Martyrs--USA and the host of The Voice of the Martyrs Radio. He serves as a voice for persecuted Christians, working with the media to tell people in the United States about the faithfulness of Christ's followers in 70+ nations where they face persecution. He has traveled the world and conducted face to face interviews with hundreds of Christians who have endured persecution. Todd and his wife, Charlotte, have two sons and two daughters-in-law.

Life Lessons and Love Languages®

What I've Learned on My Unexpected Journey

GARY CHAPMAN

Many people know Gary Chapman as the man who helped the world learn how to speak the five love languages. But the thing about Gary is...he's just a regular guy from Small Town, USA, not all that different from you. And in the mirror of Gary's life, you might discover your own story, too.

In Life Lessons and Love Languages, you'll discern the five influences that shape people's lives: home, education, marriage, children, and vocation. Even if you don't experience each of these influences yourself, you'll benefit from seeing how these pillars of human society work together to make productive people. Getting to know Gary will be a lot of fun. But getting to know yourself and how your world works is a gift that this small-town kid doesn't want you to miss.

Get to know Gary Chapman. You just might discover yourself along the way.

The Relationally Intelligent Child

Five Keys to Helping Your Kids Connect Well with Others

JOHN TRENT, AND DEWEY WILSON

Most parents today understand brokenness and loneliness when it comes to relationships. Then comes the need to teach relationship skills to their children! Having experienced isolation and loneliness on their own, parents can be terribly aware of how much their own children need and long for relationships.

The Relationally-Intelligent Child teaches parents the crucial insights of a must grasp concept: relational intelligence. This tool for growth and connection will not only change a child's life, but also a parent's own relationships. You'll discover five key elements that can engage and equip your child with skills for being relationally intelligent with family, friends, and others.

This book also includes a special online version of the Connect Assessment® to help parents understand their children's relational strengths. You'll find a hands-on application plan, as well as links to powerful podcasts, videos, and resources. Your child was created for connection and designed for loving relationships. Get the help you need to guide them to develop the skills they need to do so.

Get the guidance you need to help your child—and help yourself!—experience full, lasting relationships.

God of the Impossible

Stories of Hope from the Muslim World

SAMUEL NAAMAN, AND STEFANO FEHR

When sharing the gospel across not just beliefs but fundamental cultural differences, hope for salvation can feel futile—especially when it comes to reaching Muslims. The gap between Christianity and Islam can feel vast, and bridging cross-cultural values can seem impossible.

In God of the Impossible: Stories of Hope from the Muslim World, you'll learn the amazing testimonies of people from a Muslim background coming to personal faith in Jesus Christ. Through years of work with Call of Hope—a ministry that reaches Muslim communities—Dr. Samuel Naaman and Stefano Fehr have witnessed countless episodes of God's saving grace flourishing in the midst of adverse circumstances. In these riveting stories, you'll learn how to reach Muslims in your own community and become encouraged in your own faith by witnessing the power and promise of the gospel.

Discover how nothing is impossible for God.

Getting Over Yourself

Trading Believe-in-Yourself Religion for Christ-Centered Christianity

DEAN INSERRA

From “living your best life” to “self-actualizing,” “finding your destiny,” and “waiting on the best to come,” the contemporary messages of the world exhort us to believe that we are promised and entitled the biggest and best life can possibly offer. But is that actually what Jesus promises? Is that even close to the message of the gospel?

Getting Over Yourself is a call for Christians to reject these hollow messages of personal prosperity and to return to the humble truths of the gospel. You'll learn how to identify this insidious, popular theology in culture and churches and examine its devastating effects. And, perhaps most importantly, you'll learn how to combat it with gospel truth that leads to the abundant life Jesus actually desires for His people. Discover the beauty in losing yourself—and ultimately in gaining Him.

Is trying to be “the best you” actually ruining you?

The New Reformation

Finding Hope in the Fight for Ethnic Unity

SHAI LINNE

We all know that racial unity is important. But how can Christians of different ethnicities pursue unity in an environment that is full of landmines on all sides?

In The New Reformation, Christian hip-hop artist Shai Linne shows how the gospel applies to ethnic unity. Christians today have to fight against two tendencies: idolatry and apathy. Idolatry makes ethnicity ultimate, while apathy tends to ignore it altogether. But there's a third way, the way of the Bible. Shai explains how ethnicity—the biblical word for what we mean by "race"—exists for God's glory.

Drawing from his experience as an artist-theologian, church planter, and pastor, Shai will help you chart a new way forward in addressing the critical question of what it means for people of all ethnicities to be the one people of God.

In the sixteenth century, the church faced a doctrinal crisis. Today, the crisis is race.

Summoned

Answering a Call to the Impossible-
An 8-week Study of Esther

MEGAN B. BROWN

In a time when the world around her seemed to crumble, a young Hebrew girl found herself in a unique position to help save her people—and to encounter the greatness of our ever-faithful God. In Summoned, you'll enter the story of Esther—her calling, pain, and role in God's ultimate plan for salvation—and see how God is always working in the lives of His people, even when He seems distant. Through this 8-week, interactive study, you'll develop a deeper appreciation for God's Word and begin to see that stepping out in faith for His glory is often the first step to encountering His redeeming love.

Encounter the fullness of God's grace, the power of His promises, and the beauty of His faithfulness—all through the life of one woman: Esther.

The Visual Word

Illustrated Outlines of The New Testament Books

PATRICK SCHREINER

Let's face it: we sometimes get lost in all the names, places, and doctrines that we find in the New Testament's pages. Who wrote this epistle? Which book is about justification? Joy? Jesus? Aren't they all about him? If only somebody who understands the big picture would put it together for us in one place!

Biblical scholar Patrick Schreiner does just that. And he doesn't do it by throwing big words at you. The contours of the New Testament and its underlying structure are depicted in visual format along with Schreiner's clear explanations. In The Visual Word, the Bible comes alive because you can see it pictured before your eyes.

Don't settle for summaries of the New Testament. Let Schreiner's concise words and crisp images work together to help you encounter the Living Word in a fresh way.

Questioning Christianity

Is There More to the Story?

DAN PATERSON, AND RIAN ROUX

Getting to know Christianity is like merging onto a freeway ramp. You can see what's right in front of you. And you know the road can take you in many fascinating directions. But how all the highways form a whole is something of a mystery. So you just keep driving and hope for the best.

In Questioning Christianity Dan Paterson and Rian Roux have the bird's eye roadmap you need. After many years ministry, they know the questions people are asking. The skeptic, the seeker, the new believer . . . they all want some real answers. Not slogans. Not politics. Not simple solutions to complex problems. The person who's getting to know Christianity wants the big picture of what it's all about. Questioning Christianity provides an accessible overview of the Christian faith and way of life.

You're interested in Christianity. But do you really understand what it's all about?

DAN PATERSON is a Christian thinker and the founder of Questioning Christianity, a ministry connecting the Christian story to life's deepest questions. With a personal background of wrestling through the problem of evil, he has earned several university qualifications in Theology and Apologetics in Australia and Oxford, fueled by a passion to help others process their doubts and discover the relevance and reasonableness of faith in Jesus. Speaking regularly to audiences around Australia and beyond, Dan is based in Brisbane, where together with his wife, Erin, their favorite job is raising three boys.

Originally from South Africa, RIAN ROUX spent his adolescence in a small fishing and farming community in the far north of Australia. Intrigued by the stories that shape our lives, he travelled widely and pursued studies in Applied Science, Education, and Theology. After a year at Oxford University, he commenced a PhD in Australia with a focus on transformative learning and student leadership development in higher education. Rian has experience in pastoral ministry, teaching, and business and currently lives and works in Toowoomba with his wife, Sally, and their three children.

The Four Habits of Raising Joy-Filled Kids

A Simple Model for Developing Your Child's Maturity-at Every Stage

CHRIS COURSEY, AND MARCUS WARNER

Joy-filled kids aren't always happy kids, but they do know how to work for and wait for what is truly satisfying in life. In The Four Habits of Raising Joy-Filled Kids you will discover a tool box full of skills that you can use with your children to help them grow in maturity and live with greater joy.

These tools help your kids, from infants to teens, build skills like:

- Regulating upset emotions so they can return to joy
- Forming a stable identity that doesn't change with each new emotion
- Developing discernment to distinguish between what is satisfying and what is only temporarily pleasurable
- Discovering heart values and not just living to please others
- Building "joy bonds" rather than "fear bonds"

The skills you'll learn in The Four Habits of Raising Joy-Filled Kids will not only help you parent your children well, but they will also help you grow joy in your family.

Is "Joy-Building" the secret to raising mature healthy kids?

The Extraordinary Power of Praise

A Study of the Psalms for the Anxious Heart

BECKY HARLING

Join Becky Harling for a 6-week study that looks to Psalm 94:19: "When anxiety was great within me, your consolation brought me joy!" The Extraordinary Power of Praise will help you put into practice the two-step process for soothing an anxious heart: finding joy to replace anxiety and learning to pour out our hearts to God in praise.

Each day includes a study of a Psalm, thought provoking questions, and short morning and evening prayers. You'll also find suggested praise songs and prayer journaling prompts to help you engage more deeply with God. As you meditate on the Psalms throughout this 6-week study, you'll experience the genuine joy of God's presence, develop a positive outlook in the midst of the world's stress, and find victory over fear and anxiety.

The Extraordinary Power of Praise is suited for both individual and group use. For more of Becky's engaging, empathetic Bible teaching, go deeper into this study with the companion video series, available on DVD or for download.

A Great Cloud of Witnesses

A Study of Those Who Lived by Faith

TRILLIA NEWBELL

Throughout Scripture we find countless stories of God's faithfulness—we also find countless stories of the people who remained faithful to Him.

To strengthen and deepen your own faith, enter the stories of God's imperfect yet faithful people in A Great Cloud of Witnesses, a six-week bible study by Trillia Newbell. This study dives into Hebrews 11, examining the lives of Rahab, Enoch, Gideon, Sarah, and many more whose faiths withstood the tests of their days. Each devotional invites you into the lives of ordinary people who lived by faith and concludes with reflection questions so that you can consider how your story connects with those found in Scripture. By studying the great cloud of witnesses found in Hebrews 11, and others who have gone before us, you will learn to imitate their faith while clinging to the One who is always faithful as you run the race God has set before you.

Rejuvenate your faith through the stories of the faithful

PRIMARY AUDIENCE

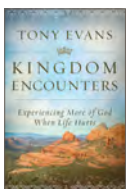

Christian women who want to go deep into God's Word and are fans of Trillia's first study If God is For Us.

NOTABLE FEATURES

The study focuses on one chapter of the Bible, dwelling in Hebrews 11.

No Flesh Shall Glory: How the Bible Destroys the Foundations of Racism

Also Includes "The Church and Social Change"

C. HERBERT OLIVER

C. Herbert Oliver, a Black civil rights leader from Birmingham, Alabama, spent thirteen years rethinking the racial ideologies of his day before writing No Flesh Shall Glory in the late 1950s. In clear, biblical, and unflinching language, he dismantles the dogmas of race superiority, the doctrine of racial solidarity, and the whitewashing of history and Scripture. His book is a gracious challenge to break free from oppressive ways of thinking and to see humanity as God sees us.

This new edition of Rev. Oliver's 1959 work includes his paper on the church, social change, identity, and protest, originally delivered as two lectures at Westminster Theological Seminary in 1964.

Endorsement

"When this biblically-based, theologically-informed, anti-racist book was first published, it was ahead of its time. Written by Herbert C. Oliver—a principled pastor who was educated at Wheaton College and Westminster Theological Seminary—Dismantling Racism makes a clear biblical case for the beauty of kingdom diversity and the absolute unity of the human race created in the image of God. As an outspoken critic of policy brutality in Bull Connor's Birmingham and an advocate for just public education in Brooklyn, New York, Oliver has lived by these principles ever since. Both the man and this book are anti-racist for the simple reason that racism is anti-Christian."

—Phillip Graham Ryken, President, Wheaton College

"C. Herbert Oliver's book, No Flesh Shall Glory, is still as riveting and relevant today as when it was first published (1959). Writing with theological precision, Oliver delivers a passionate plea for Christians to embrace the biblical doctrines of race that align with both God's character and His plan for the church. Specifically, he connects the wisdom of God in creating diverse ethnicities to the power of God in unifying all peoples in one family. This good news is as timeless as it is timely!"

—Doug Logan, Jr., President of Grimké Seminary, Associate Director of the Acts 29 Global Network, and Author of On the Block: Developing a Biblical Picture for Missional Engagement

"What a privilege to sit under the teaching of this civil rights icon through the pages of No Flesh Shall Glory. With the heart of a pastor and the careful exegesis of a scholar, Pastor Oliver pushes against historic presuppositions for interpreting race and offers sound scriptural argument, exposing the heart of God and inviting the reader to see with new eyes. This will be the resource on race and culture you will return to over and over again. I can't recommend this book enough!"

Dying to Speak: Meditations from the Cross

ANTHONY J. CARTER AND LEE FOWLER

Everyone dies. No one died like Jesus.

Unlike any other person, Jesus knew when he would die. He knew how he would die. He knew what his death would accomplish. Thus, we can be assured that Jesus's last words on the cross were full of meaning—they hold an intentional and redemptive significance.

Anthony Carter and Lee Fowler take a brief, devotional look at each of our Savior's final seven sayings on the cross. These words reveal who Jesus is: the Son of God, Messiah, Shepherd of our souls, Savior of the world. They also tell us who we are to be because of him: forgiven, saved, loved, reconciled, refreshed, complete, and satisfied. The work and words of Christ accomplish and announce the good news of salvation by grace—our response is the joy of living and loving in light of that good news. With pastoral care, Carter and Fowler remind us of the moving drama of our salvation and the implications of Christ's words for our lives today.

Anthony Carter (MA, Reformed Theological Seminary) is lead pastor of East Point Church in East Point, Georgia. He is the author of several books, including Black and Reformed, and is contributing editor of Experiencing the Truth and Glory Road. He is also a frequent conference speaker, guest lecturer, and preacher. He lives in East Point with his wife, Adriane, and their five children.

Lee Fowler is an elder candidate at East Point Church in East Point, Georgia.

"The words I speak are Spirit and Life' (John 6:63). Tony Carter and Lee Fowler, in this powerful and poignant work, draw out the power and purpose of Jesus's final declarations. As you move through the pages, you can not help but to be confronted with the fact that as Jesus was drawing His last breath, He was breathing new life into us all."

—Anthony T. Pelt, Senior Pastor, Radiant Living Worship Center

"In Dying to Speak, Tony Carter and Lee Fowler show us that Jesus's dying words were not limited by time and space and circumstances, but they call us today, into the reconciling love of Christ, to be completely satisfied in Him. This book is good for the soul, reminding us of Christ's character, and instructing us to live out the gospel truths that are infused in Jesus's last words."

Money, Debt, and Finances: Critical Questions and Answers

JIM NEWHEISER

Many books, programs, and financial gurus will tell you what to do with your money, but God's Word is the ultimate source of financial wisdom. First and foremost, it gives us our goal as Christians—not to be debt-free or to get rich but to glorify God in all things. All other financial principles in Scripture flow out of this high calling.

In an accessible Q&A format, biblical counselor and former financial consultant Jim Newheiser presents financial wisdom that is grounded in faithful biblical exegesis and rooted in sound theology. What are common misunderstandings about money? How can you create and balance a budget? How can you get out of debt? What insurance do you need? He answers these questions and more, providing a go-to resource for laypeople and those who counsel them.

Jim Newheiser (MA, DMin, Westminster Theological Seminary) is director of the Christian Counseling program and associate professor of practical theology at Reformed Theological Seminary in Charlotte. He is a fellow of the Association of Certified Biblical Counselors (ACBC) and a board member of the Fellowship of Independent Reformed Evangelicals.

Toxic Relationships: Taking Refuge in Christ

ELLEN MARY DYKAS

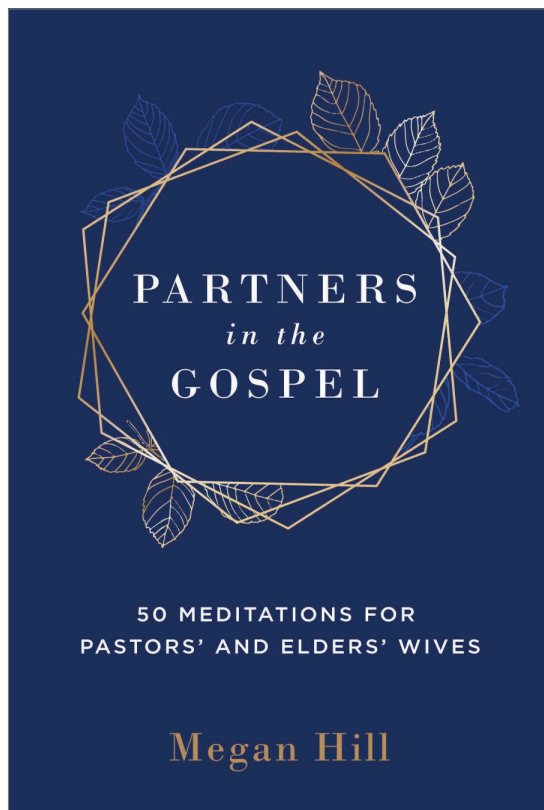

Satisfying, loving relationships are a gift from God. But what seems intoxicating becomes toxic if we grow dependent on someone else's affections, opinions, and presence in our lives.

If you're caught in a relationship—whether romantic, platonic, parental, professional, or something else—that is consuming your life and thoughts and ruling your emotions, get help! It is becoming a prison. Christ offers us true shelter. Through thirty-one daily readings with reflection questions and practical action steps, Ellen Mary Dykas helps you to renew your thinking: growing in your trust of the Lord and becoming prepared to cultivate Christ-centered relationships with others from a place of confidence and peace.

Ellen Mary Dykas (MA, Covenant Theological Seminary) is the women's ministry director at Harvest USA and the author of Sexual Sanity for Women as well as several mini-books.

Partners in the Gospel: Meditations for Pastors' and Elders' Wives

MEGAN HILL

Being an elder's wife is a joy—and a challenge. This devotional is designed to bring you to the source of true refreshment: the Word of God. Focusing on the joys and challenges of the elder's wife's heart, home, church, and community, these fifty short devotional meditations will encourage and equip wives of church leaders. Each reading also includes application suggestions for reflection, prayer, and action.

Megan Hill is the author of Praying Together, an editor for The Gospel Coalition, and a regular contributor to Today in the Word.

Endorsements

"Megan Hill knows the joys and challenges of being a pastor's wife, and she lovingly points us to the Savior as we serve and love our husbands and our churches. Hill serves as a trusted friend as she speaks to the myriad of circumstances a pastor's wife encounters. This devotional is a gift to pastor/elder wives everywhere."

—Courtney Reissig, author: Teach Me to Feel: Worshiping Through the Psalms in Every Season of Life

"If you're the wife of a pastor or elder, let me encourage you: read this book. . . . These daily devotions by Megan Hill will remind you of the truth, offer sympathy in the struggles, and refresh your heart as you walk alongside your husband in ministry."

—Melissa Kruger, author and director of women's initiatives for The Gospel Coalition

"Deeply rooted in scripture, Megan explores the themes of heart, home, church and community, highlighting the joys and challenges in each. She is brutally honest about the life of service that is filled with rejoicing, sacrifice and on occasion disappointment."

—Catriona Trueman, wife of an OPC minister

"With real-life credentials and illustrations, Megan explores the joys and challenges of life in the local church. Partners in the Gospel is a user-friendly fifty-devotional book, designed for the busy ministry wife. Visit the book for a moment, or take time for an extended stay. Either way, you will gain an understanding and refreshing friend in Megan."

—Anne Harley Duncan, wife of Teaching Elder, Ligon Duncan

"I am glad to recommend Megan Hill's Partners in the Gospel to any woman whose husband is in ministry. Not only are its contents highly relatable, but its application is both challenging and encouraging. It will remind you of what is true, then help you apply that truth to your everyday life."

Freedom to Flourish: The Rest God Offers in the Purpose He Gives You

ELIZABETH GARN

Do you have a mental image of the “Good Christian Woman” that you ought to resemble? Happily, we are God’s image bearers, not hers. Elizabeth Garn takes us to Genesis, undoing the all-too-common misconceptions that surround image bearing and living as women in God’s world. When we see what God has created us to be, we see what we are free to do—and how we flourish as a result.

Elizabeth Garn (MA, Reformed Theological Seminary) is a wife, mother, writer, and speaker. When she’s not picking Legos off the floor, she’s leading Bible studies, speaking at conferences, and writing about everyday theology for the lives of women.

Endorsements

“Sisters, read this book with joy as you receive the gift of purpose, crafted for you by the Maker himself.”

—Christina Fox, counselor, writer, retreat speaker, and author of several books, including A Holy Fear: Trading Lesser Fears for the Fear of the Lord

“Written with biblical wisdom and insight, Garn warmly invites women to rest in God as they faithfully fulfill their calling.”

—Melissa Kruger, author and director of Women’s Initiatives for The Gospel Coalition

“Elizabeth Garn offers an insightful and hope-giving understanding of God’s design for human flourishing, the effects of sin, and the restoration offered in the Gospel. Both men and women will be instructed and edified by Freedom to Flourish”

—Eric Schumacher (M.Div. in Biblical and Theological Studies, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary), co-author of Worthy: Celebrating the Value of Women and co-host of the “Worthy” podcast with Elyse Fitzpatrick.

“I truly appreciate Elizabeth’s care for all women in every age and stage of life. She speaks with compassion and teaches our hearts to embrace the One who created us in his image and likeness for his great purposes.”

—Abby Ross Hutto, Director of Spiritual Formation, Story Presbyterian Church, Westerville, Ohio; author, God For Us: Discovering the Heart of the Father through the Life of the Son

“If you’re tired, bent down under shame or just plain confused about what it means to be a faithful Christian woman, read this book and allow God to draw you closer to himself, then compel you outward...to flourish and rest through life as a loved image-bearer.”

—Ellen Mary Dykas, Women’s Ministry Director for Harvest USA

Work That Makes a Difference

DANIEL M. DORIANI

The work you do is one of the main ways you serve God and show love to your neighbor—and as you devote your time to it, it reflects, shapes, and defines who you are. When we work faithfully in ways that please God, we act as his hands in the world, providing for one another and pushing back against the effects of the fall.

Writing to men and women who labor in any field, Dan Doriani gives a brief and thoughtful overview of the Bible's teaching on the nature, challenges, and opportunities of work. What does it mean to be faithful at work? How do we know if we are called to a certain kind of work? When should we seek different employment? What makes our work good work? In a format suitable for individuals or small groups, he answers these questions and more, shining encouraging new light on the familiar and providing insights for self-evaluation.

Daniel M. Doriani (MDiv, PhD, Westminster Theological Seminary; STM, Yale Divinity School; Research Fellow, Yale University) is professor of theology and vice president at Covenant Theological Seminary. He is the founder and president of The Center for Faith and Work, St. Louis; a member of the Council of The Gospel Coalition; and a regular blogger. He was also a lead pastor for fifteen years.

"The last few years have witnessed a flurry of books that treat a Christian view of work. This is the best of them. Well written, historically comprehensive, theologically informed, exegetically sensitive—this is now the 'must-read' volume on the subject."

—D. A. Carson, Emeritus Professor of New Testament, Trinity Evangelical Divinity School

"Only recently has the evangelical church begun to pay attention to the challenge of discipling Christians for their public life and, in particular, to the integration of their faith with their vocations and work lives. Dan Doriani's book makes an important contribution to this literature. Dan is an academic who wears his considerable scholarship lightly as he writes a theologically rich but accessible book on the Christian and work. His clear teaching on how faithful work leads to social reform is especially provocative and helpful."

—Tim Keller, Founding Pastor, Redeemer Presbyterian Church, Manhattan; Chairman and Cofounder, Redeemer City to City (CTC)

"Dan was teaching on the relationship between faith, work, and culture long before this topic became popular. So as I read these chapters, it was like savoring a vintage wine—the fruit of time, reflection, and distillation. With a high view of creation, a great love for the gospel, and the hope of Christ's kingdom stirring in his heart, Dan has given us a wonderful introduction to a biblical theology of work. It is accessible, practical, and brimming with Dan's wonderful personality."

—Scotty Smith, Pastor Emeritus, Christ Community Church, Franklin, Tennessee; Teacher in Residence, West End Community Church, Nashville, Tennessee

Ephesians: The Glory of Christ in the Life of the Church, A 13-Lesson Study

Reformed Expository Bible Studies

JON NIELSON AND BRYAN CHAPPELL

In his letter to the Ephesians, Paul celebrates God’s amazing grace that saves individuals, empowers the church, and through both, transforms the world. Like the early church, we can be amazed by this truth: although the forces around us may be antagonistic to the gospel, the purposes of Christ will fill the world—he is transforming all things for you and through you.

Designed for groups and individuals, this Reformed Expository Bible Study gives users the resources they need to delve into God’s Word and understand and apply it for themselves, leading to biblical transformation. Background information and commentary lay the groundwork before readers observe and analyze the Scripture text. Each of the thirteen lessons makes connections to the rest of the Bible and to Reformed theology before concluding with a section for personal application and a prayer prompt.

Jon Nielson is senior pastor of Spring Valley Presbyterian Church in Roselle, Illinois, and the author of Bible Study: A Student’s Guide. He has served in pastoral positions at Holy Trinity Church, Chicago and College Church, Wheaton, Illinois, and as director of training for the Charles Simeon Trust.

“I am thankful to see this development in the Reformed Expository Commentary series, allowing these excellent, pastoral commentaries to get an even wider use in the church, especially by way of interactive discussion groups.”

—Bryan Chapell, Senior Pastor, Grace Presbyterian Church, Peoria, Illinois

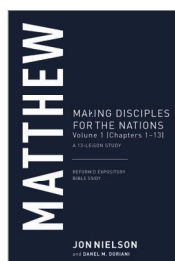

“I am quite sure I’ll be regularly recommending the Reformed Expository Bible Studies. Jon Nielson asks questions on the text that will make the reader think, while also not overwhelming the reader with too many questions. These studies will help readers to understand every text in light of the whole of the Bible—as well as the person and work of Christ.”

—Nancy Guthrie, Author, Seeing Jesus in the Old Testament Bible study series

“I highly recommend these new resources for those who desire to read the Bible through a redemptive-historical lens that will help them to draw out good gospel implications for all of life and ministry.”

1 Samuel: A King after God's Own Heart, A 13-Lesson Study

Reformed Expository Bible Studies

JON NIELSON AND RICHARD D. PHILLIPS

First Samuel is a riveting read that introduces us to some of the most memorable figures in the Old Testament—some righteous and some desperately corrupt. The greatest of its heroes is David, a mighty man of faith who makes his distinctive contribution in preparing God's people for the Anointed One, the Messiah who comes to rule and to save.

Designed for groups and individuals, this Reformed Expository Bible Study gives users the resources they need to delve into God's Word and understand and apply it for themselves, leading to biblical transformation. When Anxiety Strikes

Help and Hope for Managing Your Storm

Jason Hobbs and Dena Hobbs

Manage or prevent anxiety using faith-based methods

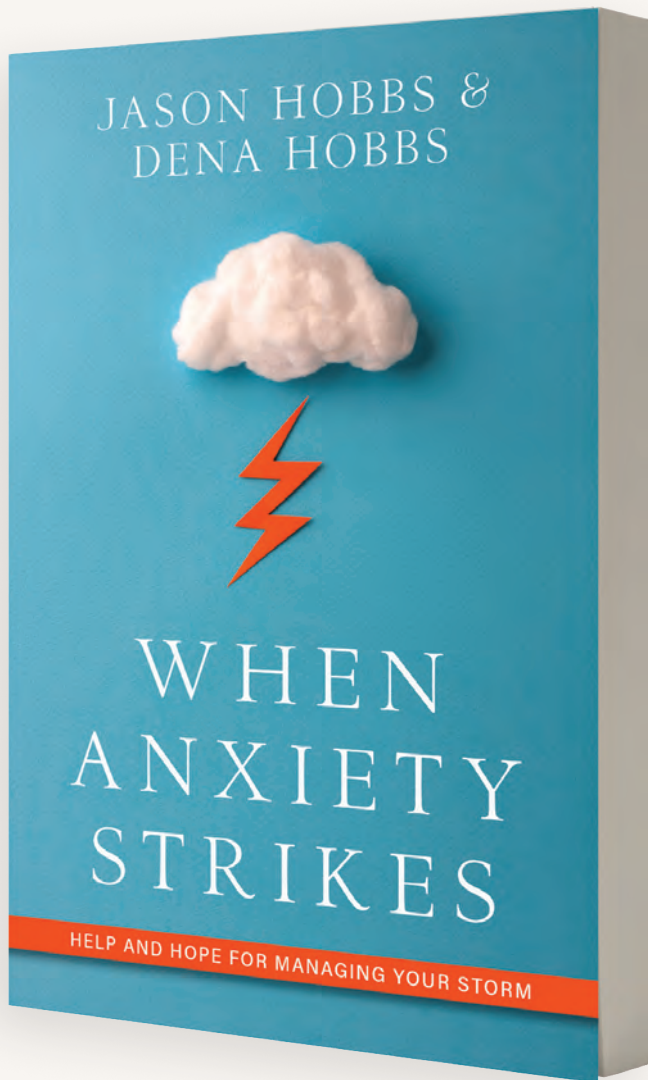

Fear not.” “Do not be afraid.” “Peace be with you.” Phrases like these appear in the Bible more often than almost any other proclamation. We long to follow these commands. Yet for many, something inside us is wary, ready for anything and everything to go wrong. In fact, a quarter of Americans struggle with anxiety disorders—and Christians are not immune.

Jason and Dena Hobbs are familiar with this struggle, professionally and personally—Jason as a clinician, Dena as someone with anxiety, and both as pastors of congregations full of anxious people. They also know the shame and confusion that so often accompany these disorders, especially for people who think their faith should be strong enough to overcome these struggles. With their deep understanding, they’ve written When Anxiety Strikes, an eight-week guide to managing anxiety, grounded in both Scripture and research.

Structured for daily reading, with integrated practices for everyday life, the book addresses seven themes: breath, body, movement, mind, change, spirit, and community. Concise stories, readings, questions, and activities guide readers to tackle the realities of living with anxiety. When Anxiety Strikes offers real solutions to find shelter when the storm of fear looms.

Jason B. Hobbs (MDiv, LCSW) has been in private mental health practice for fifteen years, assisting people through their journey with anxiety every day. Jason teaches widely on mindfulness, anxiety, and the intersection of religion and mental health, and recently trained as a spiritual director at the Shalem Institute. Jason has also written Unless a Grain of Wheat Falls.

Dena Douglas Hobbs (MDiv) has been learning to tame her own panic and anxiety for decades. She shares her expertise by leading retreats, speaking, and blogging at denadoulashobbs.com. Dena is now the Episcopal and Lutheran campus minister at Mercer University. Her previous work includes Lighten the Darkness. Dena and Jason currently live in Middle Georgia.

Crossroads

A Study of Esther and Jonah for Boldly Responding to Your Call

Jodie Niznik

A REAL PEOPLE, REAL FAITH BIBLE STUDY

Discover how to live out your unique calling from an unlikely biblical pairing

At first glance, Esther and Jonah don't have much in common. Esther is an orphan girl, out of place in royal courts, who nonetheless becomes queen and saves her beloved Jewish people. Jonah is a reluctant prophet who ran as hard as he could from God. And when he finally gave in and his efforts eventually saved his enemies, he did nothing but complain.

While Esther and Jonah endured wildly different circumstances and had distinctly singular callings, they were both appointed by God. They were placed in a certain time and space in history. God carried them through unique experiences and gave them specific gifts. Despite their opposite attitudes of willingness, their lives are proof of the great things we can accomplish when we follow God's call.

In this nine-week inductive Bible study, Jodie Niznik invites you to learn that you too are uniquely equipped and called by God for a particular assignment in a specific time and place. Now you stand at a crossroads, and the choice is yours. Will you choose to boldly respond like Esther or will you fight your calling like Jonah? With thoughtful questions and practical exercises, Niznik will gently help you examine your life through the lens of Scripture and take brave, bold steps forward into the life you long for!

Jodie Niznik is pastor to women at Irving Bible Church in Flower Mound, Texas. She holds a master's degree in Christian education with an emphasis in women's ministry from Dallas Theological Seminary and has served in various roles in ministry to women. Jodie is the author of Choose: A Study of Moses for a Life That Matters, and coauthor with Sue Edwards of Galatians: Discovering Freedom in Christ Through Daily Practice.

Views from the Spectrum

A Window into Life and Faith with Your Neurodivergent Child

Ron Sandison; foreword by Darold A. Treffert, MD

A remarkable inside look at the intersection of faith and autism for parents longing to connect their children with God's love

Raising a child with autism is both a challenge and an adventure—and sometimes parents need to know there can also be wonderful potential for blessings. Views from the Spectrum shares the inspiring stories of twenty amazing young adults with autism and how each of their family's unwavering support and faith in God led them to accomplish what was thought impossible. As a thriving adult with autism himself, Ron Sandison is determined to educate the world on the gifts and talents autism can cultivate—even when they differ from our expectations of typical success.

While it is primarily a much-needed how-to guide for parents of children with special needs, this book is also a stunning view into the world of autism. Readers will witness the courage of Tyler Gianchetta, who rescued his mother from a burning vehicle. They'll marvel at the artistic talent of nonverbal poet and artist Kimberly Dixon, admire the determination of Hallie Hovey-Murray, a law student competing for the title of Miss Virginia, and find encouragement in the many other stories within these pages. In addition to these experiences, Sandison has also interviewed top experts in the autism field and shares their insights here.

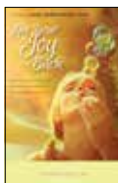

Sandison weaves narrative with Scripture, sharing his own journey with autism throughout the book. Full of anecdotes, scientific research, parenting tips, prayers, devotions, and more, Views from the Spectrum is a celebration of autism, faith, and the possibilities at their intersection.

Ron Sandison is the founder of Spectrum Inclusion and an advisory board member of the Art of Autism and the Faith Initiative of the Autism Society of America. He works full-time in the medical field, is professor of theology at Destiny School of Ministry, and speaks on autism at more than seventy events a year. His previous work includes A Parent's Guide to Autism. Ron and his wife live in Rochester Hills, Michigan.

1 and 2 Thessalonians

Discovering Hope in a Promised Future

Sue Edwards

DISCOVER TOGETHER BIBLE STUDY

A trusted Bible teacher mines Paul's letters to the Thessalonians to offer a vision for what's to come

Chaotic. Angry. Helpless. How often do we encounter these emotions when we look at the state of the world around us? It's tempting to despair. What kind of future can we look forward to when the world is so full of turmoil and division? Can the next world be any better?

Instead of turning to the world's answers to these questions, Sue Edwards invites us to look to Scripture. Though brief, Paul's letters to the Thessalonians are packed with nuggets of information to help us grasp what life after death will look like for followers of Christ. And it isn't sitting on clouds playing harps. Rather, it's dazzling, action-packed, relational, and free from pain and darkness. By focusing on the truths these short letters reveal, we are able to fill our spirits with real anticipation and courage. We can forge ahead, empowered by God's grace to bless and empower others, knowing the glorious heaven that awaits.

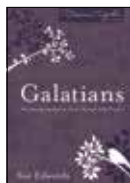

Edwards's clear style makes her Bible studies easy to understand for both newcomers and seasoned students of the Word. Her inductive approach provides enough direction to keep women on the path to biblical truth yet also asks them to find answers for themselves, an effective combination for a faith that sticks.

Sue Edwards (DMin, Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary) is professor of educational ministry and leadership at Dallas Theological Seminary. She has more than forty years of experience teaching, pastoring, and directing women's ministries. In addition, Sue speaks at retreats, conferences, and seminars across the country.

Hope for Healing from Domestic Abuse

Reaching for God's Promise of Real Freedom

Karen DeArmond Gardner

God's love is steadfast for survivors who chose to leave an abusive marriage but still suffer the aftershocks

When someone leaves an abusive marriage, life isn't instantly fixed. Women who have experienced domestic violence feel shattered. Because of the trauma they've been through, a bond with their abuser has formed that keeps them tied together long after they've physically left.

Karen DeArmond Gardner understands these difficulties all too well. She tackled all the same struggles when she left her own abusive marriage. And she intimately knows what women in this situation need in order to gain freedom from the lies of abuse—to be reborn as the people God longs for them to be.

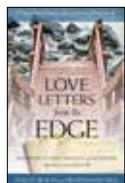

Hope for Healing from Domestic Abuse isn't a how-to book with a few easy steps. Instead, it's a biblically based map for a long journey to healing. By recounting her own history—as well as the faithfulness of God when she was willing to follow His direction—Karen helps readers:

- discover there is life beyond abuse
- recognize God's relentless pursuit of their heart
- gain courage to release the trauma of their past
- regain life, hope, and wholeness in Jesus's healing love

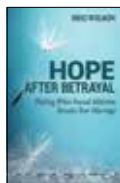

Gardner's inside perspective, strong voice, and incredible, vulnerable story of deliverance from the bonds of abuse allow readers to find themselves in her words and feel heard at last. She puts hope back in their hands, with the assurance that God loves them deeply and wants them to know they aren't defined by their trauma, their past, or their brokenness.

Karen DeArmond Gardner is a thirty-year survivor of domestic violence and a longtime advocate for women who have experienced the same. Her advocacy work includes facilitating Mending the Soul, a group that leads survivors through their trauma, and serving on the board of directors at Arukah House, a transitional home for women coming out of sex trafficking and abuse. Gardner blogs at anotheronefree.com from her home in Hurst, Texas.

Disciplined Leader

Inspiration from a Fortune 500 Executive for Transforming Your Workplace by Pursuing Christ

Preston Poore

“A must-read for every leader.” —Dan T. Cathy, Chairman and CEO at Chick-fil-A, Inc.

Preston Poore has spent decades in corporate America. Despite all the excellent advice he was given for growing in leadership, there was something missing: a way to bring his Christian beliefs to bear in his professional life, not just his personal life. So Preston sought his own answer to how his faith could impact his management of hundreds of employees.

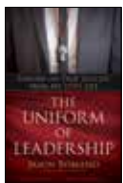

What he discovered was this: the first step wasn't adjusting his leadership style. Instead, he needed to let God change him before he could effect real change in his workplace. And in order to model discipleship to his team, he needed to first be disciplined by the Spirit. Here, in the day-to-day practice of being a disciple of Jesus Christ, Poore found where his faith and exceptional leadership intersect.

Through personal stories, biblical principles, and hands-on workplace guidance, Poore offers readers a unique look at this seldom-discussed connection. He challenges struggling leaders to engage in the hard work of daily discipleship. And he charges experienced leaders to return to the fundamentals of their faith, encouraging them to disciple other Christians with leadership potential.

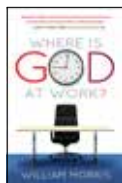

For anyone wrestling with how to bring faith to the workplace, whether it be a cubicle or a boardroom, Disciplined Leader reveals that leadership doesn't begin behind the desk—it begins in the soul.

Preston Poore is director of strategic capabilities at The Coca-Cola Company. He has also held various positions with The Hershey Company, Dale Carnegie Training, Ralston Purina, and AmSouth Bank. A small-business owner of Numerica Corporation, Poore is also a certified John Maxwell Team coach, speaker, and trainer. He makes his home in Marietta, Georgia. Discover more at prestonpoore.com.

The Genuine Jesus

Fresh Evidence from History and Archaeology

Updated Edition

Paul L. Maier

“Vivid style and keen insights make this book a delight and a genuine educational experience.”
—Moody Magazine

In this richly illustrated volume—formerly titled In the Fullness of Time—Paul Maier visits the origins of Christianity, taking the reader back to the first Christmas, the first Easter, and the first Christians. His impressive research and brilliant insights draw together history, archaeology, and the New Testament to bring alive the true drama of earliest Christianity.

This skillful narrative sheds a needed new light on the life of Jesus and the adventures of the courageous men and women who carried His message throughout a hostile empire. A host of magnificent color and black-and-white photographs recreate the world, the mood, the people, and the events with an immediacy that sweeps readers into the exciting first years of Christianity.

“The author is at home in the vast literature of his subject.”
—New York Times Book Review

“For the supremely pivotal event of the resurrection, Paul Maier’s book lends fresh and scholarly support.”
—Billy Graham

“Fascinating. . . . Brings a new perspective to a story we have known all our lives.” —Redbook

“Fact-filled, interesting, and successful. . . . Splendid research. This is a beautiful book.” —Christian Century

Paul L. Maier was Russell H. Seibert Professor of Ancient History at Western Michigan University before his retirement and is an award-winning author whose expertise in first-century studies and extensive travels in the Middle East and Asia Minor provide historical authenticity and compelling drama to his writing. His other books include the best-selling novel A Skeleton in God’s Closet.

CHRISTIAN FOCUS

As a pastor who would have loved to be a footballer I really enjoyed this book about a footballer who loves being a pastor. A terrific story of someone who has spent his life heading towards the goal to receive a prize that doesn't tarnish with time.

Alistair Begg

Senior Pastor, Parkside Church, Chagrin Falls, Ohio

Gavin was a superb footballer, but more importantly a wonderful guy. His life story will be one of the football best ever reads for sure.

Harry Harris

Author, Former Chief Football Writer for The Daily Mirror, Two-time British Sports Journalist Of The Year

To be successful in one career takes talent and determination. To do so in three careers is something else. Gavin Peacock's life story is unique. His autobiography is fascinating.

Lance Hardy

Author, TV Editor, Former Editor BBC Sport

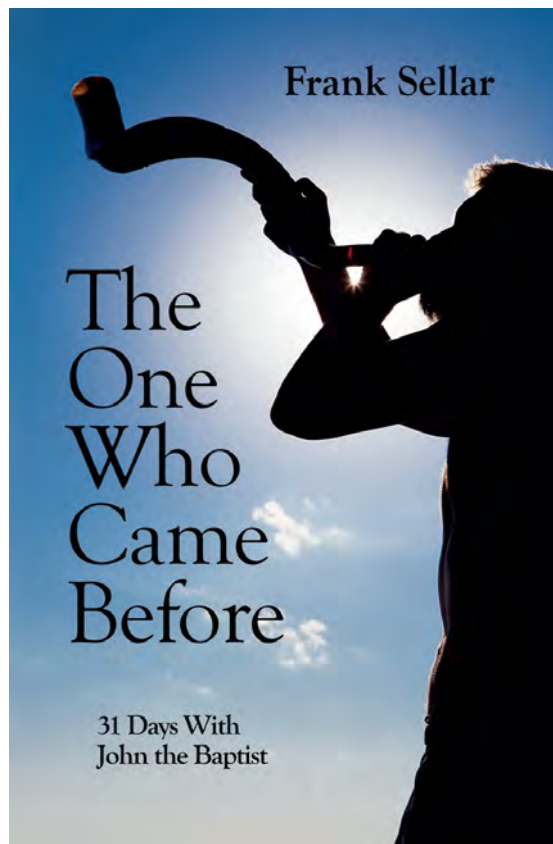

Gavin's story includes playing for some of the top managers in football including Harry Redknapp, Kevin Keegan, Ossie Ardiles and Glenn Hoddle. I played against Gavin a number of times and he was an outstanding professional but perhaps more importantly, he was also a man of very good character.

CHRISTIAN FOCUS

Engaging, thoughtful and wise, Frank Sellar's 31-day devotional brings fresh eyes to a familiar story. The great gift of this book is to encourage and challenge both our head and heart. It will bless all those who read it.

Emma Scrivener

Blogger at emmascrivener.net and author of 'A New Name' and 'A New Day'

His careful reflections come from a lifetime of ministry that has been biblical, pastoral and practical. Consequently, Frank's insights into the Baptist's character and ministry are applied with a deceptive simplicity that can veil the wisdom of these brief expositions.

David Searle

Pastor and former Director of Rutherford House, Edinburgh.

A fresh and thorough look at the extraordinary character of John the Baptist. But, even better than that, as you look at John you will find yourself marvelling at the greater One who came after him. Insightful, challenging and full of rich application. I thoroughly recommend it!

Jonty Allcock

Lead Pastor, The Globe Church, London

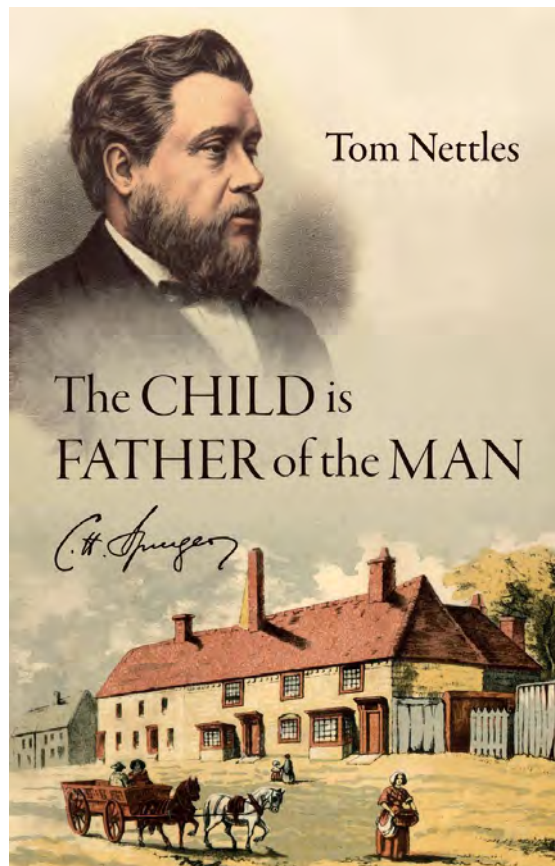

Frank shows us how John consistently pointed others to Jesus, which is precisely what this devotional does! Read it – you will not only learn about John the Baptist, but your heart will resonate with John's words about Christ, 'He must increase, but I must decrease' (John 3:30).

The Child is Father of the Man

C. H. Spurgeon

Tom Nettles

- From the author of 'Living by Revealed Truth'
- Famous 19th Century Baptist preacher
- Key factors that molded Spurgeon

Tom Nettles examines the life of one of the world's most famous preachers. He isolates key convictions that appear in Spurgeon's life either before or immediately after his conversion, and traces them through his life as he develops into the charming, interesting, confident, humble, spiritual-minded man and pastor whose work and witness dominated evangelicalism in the last half of the nineteenth century.

Tom Nettles is Senior Professor of Historical Theology at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky.

CHRISTIAN FOCUS

... brilliantly focusses on ten key moments, convictions really, that shaped the larger-than-life Charles Haddon Spurgeon. These convictions steered Spurgeon to weather controversy, depression, and setbacks. Through it all, Spurgeon's exuberant love for God, the gospel, and for the church shines through.

Stephen J. Nichols

President, Reformation Bible College,
CAO Ligonier Ministries, Sanford, Florida

... offers fascinating insights, and a treasure trove of quotes from the 'prince of preachers'. ... an absolute treat, and a robust foundation for your soul.

Jeremy McQuoid

Teaching Pastor, Deeside Christian
Fellowship, Aberdeen, Scotland and Chair
of Council, Keswick Ministries

There is depth in the study, and there is breadth, and—perhaps most precious—there is a happy recognition of the grace of God, the beauty of Christ, and the power of the Spirit, upon which Spurgeon's ministry depended and in which he himself delighted.

Jeremy Walker

Pastor, Maidenbower Baptist Church, UK

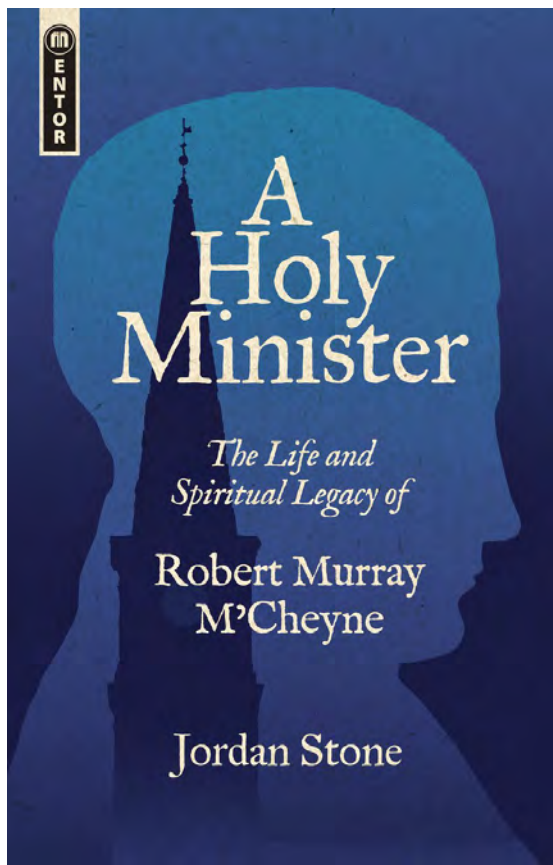

... shows how the remarkable fruitfulness of Spurgeon's ministry developed from tiny seeds sown in his childhood and youth. Readers will enjoy the remarkable insights from a writer who is not only a Spurgeon scholar, but a man who has served the church as a professor of historical theology for more than forty years.

A Holy Minister

The Life and Spiritual Legacy of Robert Murray M'Cheyne

Jordan Stone

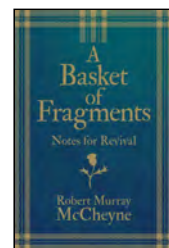

- Life & theology of great 19th Century preacher
- Often overlooked aspects of M'Cheyne's life
- Powerful model for pastors

Robert Murry M'Cheyne was a 19th century preacher who is known not only for his powerful preaching, but for his personal holiness. Jordan Stone examines the force behind this holiness – his love for and communion with Christ. M'Cheyne prayed for, preached for and pursued holiness because he understood it to be the mature expression of love to Christ. Let us allow his unrelenting passion for piety convict our contemporary complacency and help us learn how to abide in the love of Christ.

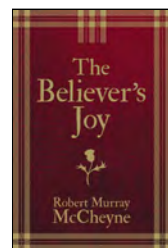

Jordan Stone

Jordan Stone (Ph.D. The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary) is the senior pastor of Redeemer PCA in McKinney, TX, and lecturer in practical theology at Reformed Theological Seminary, Dallas. He is married to Emily, and they are the proud parents of six children.

MENTOR

Stone brings to life a pastoral voice few outside of Scotland have heard, but every pastor needs. This book is a very concise, well-written, and accessible work that will act as a great introduction to Robert Murray M'Cheyne or a sweet reminder to those who already know him. I commend M'Cheyne to every pastor and this excellent work to get you started.

Brian Croft

Pastor, Auburndale Baptist Church, Louisville, Kentucky and Founder, Practical Shepherding

In terms of accessibility and usefulness to contemporary ministry I can think of no better book on M'Cheyne. Comprehensive and yet easily read it does not shy away from tough issues like how to deal with controversy.

David Meredith

Mission Director, Free Church of Scotland, Inverness

... there is danger in picking up this book. You will not only be inspired, you will be challenged. Christ's beauty and preciousness shined throughout M'Cheyne's life and ministry, as evidenced on every page of this book.

Jason Helopoulos

Senior Pastor, University Reformed Church, East Lansing, Michigan

The piety of M'Cheyne, pulsing with love to Christ, is his great legacy, and Stone helps us to understand it in M'Cheyne and to long for it in ourselves. It is not to make much of M'Cheyne that we should read this book, but to learn from M'Cheyne how a revived ministry will ordinarily be the instrument of a revived church.

All Things are Ready

Understanding the Gospel in its Fullness and Freeness

Donald John MacLean

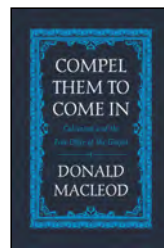

- What it means to offer and receive the gospel
- Explores issues of God's sovereignty in salvation
- Tackles objections to free offer of the gospel

It is one of the glories of the gospel that it is universal in scope. There is nothing narrow or limited about the good news of salvation, but we often need reminded of this. When the world seems increasingly hostile the Church can be tempted to retreat in on itself. Donald John Maclean seeks to remind Christians of the fullness and freeness of the gospel, and to encourage them to share it with those who have not yet turned to Christ.

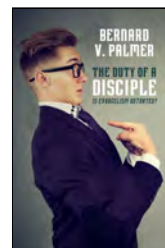

Donald John MacLean

Donald John MacLean is an elder in Cambridge Presbyterian Church where he preaches regularly. He is a Trustee of the Banner of Truth and editor of Foundations, the theological journal of Affinity. He is married to Ruth and has two children, Hannah and Jonathan.

CHRISTIAN FOCUS

This is a relentlessly biblical and relentlessly open-hearted book, which shows us very clearly that those who delight most in the truth of God's glorious sovereignty should be passionate and persistent evangelists—like Jesus.

Lee Gatiss

Director of Church Society, and Adjunct Lecturer in Church History, Union School of Theology, Bridgend, Wales

In a day of cool communication, Donald John MacLean makes the case for warm, wholehearted and unrestrained gospel proclamation. This book made me want to preach. It is a treasure for all who love the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Colin S. Smith

Senior Pastor, The Orchard, Arlington Heights, Illinois and President, Unlocking the Bible

... Dr. MacLean has written a book that Pastors can enjoy and also recommend to their flock. It is probably the best work I have read of its kind.

Mark Jones

A Certain Brightness

Bible Devotions for Troubled Times

Philippa Ruth Wilson

- Short devotions for those who are struggling
- Each chapter title is a 5–word Bible phrase
- Hardback with illustrations

The devotions in this book are short, encouraging, and a reminder of the light when everything seems dark. Philippa Wilson has begun each chapter with a five–word Bible phrase that is easily memorised and ended with a prayer. Beautiful illustrations by Rebekah Lesan make this an ideal book to give to friends who are struggling.

Philippa Ruth Wilson

Philippa Ruth Wilson has blogged about Jesus and depression at A Certain Brightness for 5 years. She holds a BA in theology, an MA in creative writing, and teaches English to Cardiff teenagers. Outside of the classroom, you will find her charity shop bargain–hunting, writing her novel or having a nap.

CHRISTIAN FOCUS

These beautiful, honest and hope–filled devotions are a joy to read. With a poet's ear and a pastor's heart, Philippa Wilson gently points bruised believers to the saviour who became bruised for us.

Matt Searles

Director of Training, South Central Gospel Partnership Author of Tumbling Sky: Psalms for Weary Souls

These simple, yet profound, devotions, bring the light and life of scripture to those who are struggling through times of darkness and depression. Philippa writes with raw honesty, gentle humour and, above all, Christ–centred hope. There are treasures here for all of us, however we are feeling.

Vaughan Roberts

Rector of St Ebbe's, Oxford and Director of Proclamation Trust

In the darkest of days, sometimes all we can consume is a few morsels at a time. A Certain Brightness provides just that – morsels of gospel truth. This devotional is written for the weary and down–trodden. It is a gentle and quiet whisper that cuts into the cacophony of our minds, reminding us of the One who loves us most.

Christina Fox

Counselor, retreat speaker and author

This is a lovely book. Pastoral, sensitive and full of wisdom, it offers comfort and companionship to those who are struggling. I've been blessed and encouraged by it. I am thankful to Philippa for sharing from her own experiences and for reminding me of the God who shines brightest in the dark.

What Comes Next?

Shaping the Future in an Ever-Changing World - A Guide for Christian Leaders

NICHOLAS SKYTLAND, ALICIA LLEWELLYN, FOREWORD BY WILL MANCINI

Our mission as Christians was the same yesterday as it is today and will be tomorrow. The world, however, is changing faster than ever before, and keeping up feels impossible. The realities of human life—from how we develop relationships to how we use technology to have impact—therefore change rapidly too. It's critical that Christian leaders take this into consideration as they plan for their organizations' future.

In What Comes Next?, strategists and innovation experts Nick Skytland and Ali Llewellyn use the eight elements of their Futures Framework to teach us how to help shape the future, be visionary, and grow our businesses and ministries. This futures-thinking process is a proven solution for executives, entrepreneurs, pastors, and anyone in between who struggles to respond to an ever-changing world.

What if, instead of keeping up with change, you could get ahead of it?

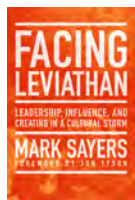

PRIMARY AUDIENCE

Christian leaders in various contexts (churches, mission organizations, nonprofits, parachurch ministries, and business) who feel both anxiety and excitement over the possibilities of the future

NOTABLE FEATURES

- Provides a framework for ministry leaders to process future thinking and where to focus their attention
- Identifies key forces that drive change and how their various intersections create opportunities for leadership

50 Most Important Questions About the Bible

MICHAEL A. RYDELNIK

The Bible was written in a distant land in a different time, which can make its contents confusing for readers today. It's understandable to not understand everything about it. In 50 Most Important Questions about the Bible, you'll find brief but thorough answers to the most commonly asked questions about the Word of God. Dr. Michael Rydelnik brings his knowledge from teaching at Moody Bible Institute and experience as host of the radio program Open Line with Dr. Michael Rydelnik to address each question clearly, thoroughly, and concisely. He addresses topics such as:

- God, Himself
- Jesus' passion on the cross
- Spiritual life and behavior
- The Old Testament
- Biblical prophecy

From people like Cain and Abel to events like creation and Noah's flood, from the Law of Moses to the Holy Spirit, you'll find insightful, biblically-based explanations to help you better understand God's Word.

What Great Ministry Leaders Get Right

Six Core Competencies You Need to Succeed in Your Calling

JIMMY DODD, AND RENAUT VAN DER REIT

Though church leaders take courses in preaching and Christian education, when do they learn about personal limitations and the benefits of intimate friendships? Or what about conflict resolution? Knowledge gaps like these are often the primary factors that lead to frustration and burnout.

In What Great Ministry Leaders Get Right, Jimmy Dodd of PastorServe and Renaud van der Riet of Mosaic Church Winter Garden FL outline the six core competencies church leaders need to develop healthy, biblical, and sustainable leadership. Jimmy and Renaud address the critical lessons often missing from ministry training that all leaders need to successfully serve their congregations. Whether you've been in the pulpit for years or are just beginning your ministry education, every pastor can make sure they're prepared for the real-world challenges of ministry.

Identifies core abilities of successful leaders, based on PastorServe's questionnaire taken by hundreds of Pastors.

JIMMY DODD is the founder and CEO of PastorServe. This organization works across denominational lines to strengthen the church by serving pastors. He is the author of Survive or Thrive, 6 Relationships Every Pastor Needs, and Pastors Are People Too, co-authored with Larry Magnuson. Jimmy and his wife Sally have five children and three grandchildren.

RENAUT VAN DER REIT is passionate about living, teaching, and leading in a way that shows the Gospel of Jesus to be true and beautiful. Of all the roles he fills, none is as important to him as being a husband to his wife, Brooke, and father to their eight children, four of whom are adopted from Ethiopia. In 2002, he and Brooke founded Mosaic Church in Winter. It has become a pacemaker for fostering and adoption and a sought after model of how ministries can respond to childhood special needs and trauma care. He is developing The ReStory, a project aimed at providing Gospel clarity to followers of Christ.

Succeeding at Seminary

How to Make the Most of Your Theological Education

JASON K. ALLEN

Many seminarians finish their education with regrets and missed opportunities. They feel spiritually drained, they never connected with their professors or colleagues, they are plagued with a long list of “What ifs?,” and worry they wasted this time. And many, as they enter the ministry, discover gaps in their education and are left thinking, “If only my seminary had taught me that.”

Prepare for your calling and make the most of your theological training with Succeeding at Seminary. Seminary president Jason K. Allen provides guidance for incoming and current seminary students on how to maximize their education experience. You’ll learn how to select the right institution and weigh the pros and cons of online or in-person classes. You’ll also receive tips for developing rapport with peers and professors and get insights for how to navigate a work, study, and family-life balance to help you survive the rigors of advanced theological learning.

Seminary can offer the opportunities and education you need to flourish in ministry, but only if you are ready to make the most of it. With Succeeding at Seminary, you’ll get the guidance and encouragement you need to maximize your seminary opportunity and excel in your calling.

Virtual Reality Church

Pitfalls and Possibilities (Or How to Think Biblically about Church in Your Pajamas, VR Baptisms, Jesus Avatars, and Whatever Else is Coming Next)

DARRELL L. BOCK, AND JONATHAN J. ARMSTRONG

The invention of the printing press catalyzed Martin Luther's reformation; radios and televisions delivered Billy Graham's Gospel proclamations to millions of households. Technological advancements have undoubtedly advanced Kingdom work for centuries—but is the same true for the burgeoning technologies of today?

As virtual reality becomes increasingly prominent throughout society, churches must assess how to respond thoughtfully and biblically. In Virtual Reality Church, theologians Darrell Bock and Jonathan Armstrong present a systematic reflection on how to faithfully apply virtual reality for ministry purposes. They examine the risks—like compromising the meaning of tangible worship—and opportunities—like safely reaching persecuted churches—of integrating revolutionary technologies into the Christian life. Learn to think critically, theologically, and pastorally about new technologies so that you can faithfully advance the Gospel into the future.

Is Virtual Reality a Biblical Reality

JONATHAN J. ARMSTRONG is Professor of Bible at Moody Bible Institute, where he lectures in New Testament studies and church history. He consults at the intersection of faith and technology and serves as the president of the Aqueduct Project aqueductproject.org. He lives in the Chicago area with his wife and three children.

Your Old Testament Sermon Needs to Get Saved

A Handbook for Preaching Christ from the Old Testament

DAVID M. KING

From the miracles of the Gospels to the teachings of the Epistles, the New Testament is saturated with the saving work of Jesus Christ. But where is He in the poetry, prophets, and history of the Old Testament?

Your Old Testament Sermon Needs to Get Saved is a practical handbook for preaching Christ from the Old Testament. The book provides a comprehensive but simple hermeneutic for discerning how Jesus is present on every page of the Hebrew Scriptures. You'll learn why and how to preach Christ from the Old Testament while experiencing the beauty of discovering and teaching how the saving work of Christ permeates the first two-thirds of the Bible.

Every good sermon proclaims the gospel—even those from the Old Testament.

Master Discipleship Today

Jesus's Prayer and Plan for Every Believer

Don Hawkins

A modern discipleship strategy based on Jesus's plan for his disciples

Longtime pastor and radio host Don Hawkins explains how the twenty-first-century tool of Christian Life Coaching can facilitate Jesus's first-century mandate to make disciples. Based on Jesus's prayer in John 17, this book explores and applies the six steps the Lord carried out to guide his followers.

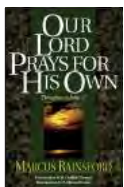

The pattern laid down by Christ is a practical, workable one. This is not simply another list of vital topics for the growing Christian. Rather, it is a divinely inspired, Christ-centered outline actually modeled by Jesus.

Master Discipleship Today is a hands-on how-to tool for pastors, group leaders, and individual Christians who want to further their own growth in the faith and lead others to a deeper level of discipleship.

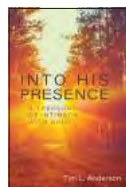

This is a revised and expanded edition of the book formerly titled Master Discipleship, updated to include the Christian Life Coaching model of discipleship.

Don Hawkins, producer and host of the Encouragement Today radio broadcast, is also the former cohost of Back to the Bible and Life Perspectives, and the former president of Southeastern Bible College. Don has authored and coauthored a number of best-selling books, including Never Give Up and The Roots of Inner Peace.

Handbooks for New Testament Exegesis

Four-Volume Set

John D. Harvey, series editor

The Old Testament displays a remarkable literary and theological unity through a variety of genres. But applying a single, one-size-fits-all method of exegesis can lead to confusion and misunderstanding. A valuable reference for students and pastors, the Handbooks for Old Testament Exegesis series provides readers with an enhanced understanding of different Old Testament genres and strategies for interpretation.

This set includes Interpreting Apocalyptic Literature by Richard A. Taylor, Interpreting the Historical Books by Robert B. Chisholm Jr., Interpreting the Pentateuch by Peter T. Vogt, Interpreting the Psalms by Mark D. Futato, Interpreting the Prophetic Books by Gary V. Smith, and Interpreting the Wisdom Books by Edward M. Curtis.

David M. Howard Jr. (PhD, University of Michigan) is retired dean of the Center for Biblical and Theological Foundations and professor of Old Testament at Bethel Seminary. He has published five books and numerous journal articles, book chapters, and essays.

A valuable reference tool for students and pastors, the Handbooks for New Testament Exegesis series provides readers with an enhanced understanding of different New Testament genres and strategies for interpretation, following in the footsteps of the well-received Handbooks for Old Testament Exegesis series. All books in the series are written by accomplished teacher-scholars at leading evangelical schools. They are essential resources for anyone teaching and preaching these foundational books.

This set includes Interpreting the Gospels and Acts by David L. Turner, Interpreting the Pauline Letters by John D. Harvey, Interpreting the General Letters by Herbert W. Bateman IV, and Interpreting Revelation and Other Apocalyptic Literature by C. Marvin Pate.

John D. Harvey (ThD, Wycliffe College, University of Toronto) is dean and professor of New Testament at Columbia International University Seminary and School of Ministry in Columbia, South Carolina. Invitation to Biblical Interpretation

Exploring the Hermeneutical Triad of History, Literature, and Theology

SECOND EDITION

Andreas J. Köstenberger with Richard D. Patterson

INVITATION TO THEOLOGICAL STUDIES

An authoritative guide to accurately interpreting and applying God's Word

In this second edition of Invitation to Biblical Interpretation, Andreas Köstenberger leads the reader step-by-step through the process of interpreting and applying God's Word.

The primary principle is the hermeneutical triad, which consists of history, literature, and theology. Readers are equipped to explore the historical background of a biblical passage, analyze its literary genre and features, and derive its theological meaning in light of the biblical canon. Numerous examples are provided throughout to illustrate the concepts. A concluding chapter provides direction on practical application, preaching, and helpful tools for Bible study.

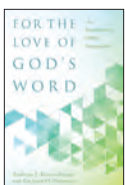

Additional features include key words and definitions at the end of each chapter, study questions, and practical exercises for applying the material. An appendix lists numerous resources for Bible study, including recommended commentaries for every book of the Bible.

The second edition updates these resources, as well as the sources cited throughout, and includes a new chapter on the Old Testament canon. Instructors, students, pastors, and anyone who desires to interpret Scripture accurately will find this volume to be an indispensable addition to their library.

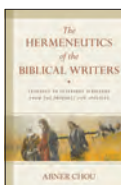

Andreas J. Köstenberger is research professor of New Testament and biblical theology and director of the Center for Biblical Studies at Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Richard D. Patterson is distinguished professor emeritus at Liberty University.

Invitation to Christian Ethics

Moral Reasoning and Contemporary Issues

Ken Magnuson

INVITATION TO THEOLOGICAL STUDIES

A comprehensive introduction to Christian ethics addressing today's most challenging moral issues

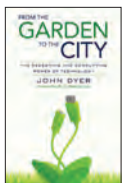

Invitation to Christian Ethics is an indispensable guide for helping pastors, counselors, and everyday Christians navigate today's difficult moral questions. Readers will benefit from Ken Magnuson's survey of ethics from a biblical perspective as well as contemporary theories of moral reasoning. This survey is followed by twelve chapters devoted to some of complex and important issues Christians encounter today, such as:

- Sexuality, including homosexuality, sexual identity, and gender
- Marriage and divorce
- Infertility and assisted reproductive technologies
- Abortion
- Physician-assisted suicide
- Race relations
- Creation care
- Capital punishment
- Just war, pacifism, and the use of lethal force

Magnuson provides biblical insight into each topic and presents key moral considerations. He also answers specific, practical questions that arise and concludes with a summary of his recommended approach to each issue. Readers will learn how to grapple with difficult moral questions and will receive guidance for some of life's most challenging ethical conundrums.

Ken Magnuson is professor of Christian ethics at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky.

40 Questions About Pastoral Ministry

Phil A. Newton

40 QUESTIONS SERIES

A veteran pastor answers questions today's pastors are asking

In 40 Questions About Pastoral Ministry, longtime pastor Phil Newton provides trustworthy answers to the most common and pressing questions relating to the life and work of the pastor. Covering five major categories—such as development, practices, and preaching—Newton equips pastors to successfully handle everyday duties and challenges, including:

- Remaining spiritually healthy
- Strengthening your marriage
- Dealing with discouragement
- Avoiding pitfalls
- Leading elders' meetings
- Mentoring future leaders
- Preaching through books of the Bible
- Conducting marriages and funerals
- Practicing church discipline
- Leading change and revitalization

Basing his answers on Scripture, theological reflection, and personal experience, Newton serves as a guide for pastors at every stage of ministry. The questions and answers are self-contained, and topics of interest can be easily located. Pastors will want to consult this volume often for authoritative advice on all aspects of pastoral ministry.

Phil A. Newton (PhD, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, DMin, Fuller Theological Seminary) has been a pastor for over forty years. He is the author of four books, including The Mentoring Church, which was the 2017 The Gospel Coalition Ministry book of the year.

40 Questions About Interpreting the Bible

Second Edition

Robert L. Plummer

40 QUESTIONS SERIES

A vital Bible resource used in classrooms and churches worldwide, now revised and updated

Now in a revised second edition, 40 Questions About Interpreting the Bible probes the most pressing problems encountered by churchgoers and beginning Bible students when they try to read and understand the Bible. Based on feedback from pastors, professors, and Bible teachers, New Testament professor Robert L. Plummer includes updated information about Bible translations, biblical interpretation, and Bible study technology, streamlining previous portions to make room for a handful of new issues.

This second edition will continue to serve as a go-to guide or textbook on historical, interpretive, practical, and theological questions such as:

- Were the ancient manuscripts of the Bible transmitted accurately?
- Why can't people agree on what the Bible means?
- How do we interpret the psalms?
- How can I use the Bible in daily devotions?

40 Questions About Interpreting the Bible provides crucial assistance for students and church members ready to engage with biblical scholarship and for pastors and teachers eager to lead Bible studies with confidence.

Robert L. Plummer (PhD, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary) is Collin and Evelyn Aikman Professor of Biblical Studies at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, where he has taught for over twenty years. Plummer is the author of numerous books in biblical studies, including the guides The Story of Scripture and Understanding the Bible, and is founder and host of the online New Testament Greek learning resource dailydoseofgreek.com.

A holistic approach to reaching Generation Z in your local church

To disciple the youth in student ministries today, we need to understand the unique characteristics of Generation Z and apply lessons learned from recent decades of youth ministry. In this thoroughly revised second edition of Raising the Bar: Student Ministry for a New Generation, pastor and professor Timothy McKnight brings a wealth of new insights, resources, and guidance for reaching today's adolescents.

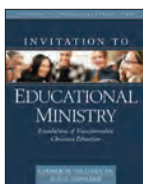

Following an overview of the beliefs, attitudes, and practices of Gen Z, McKnight provides youth pastors and volunteers with a complete plan for discipling young people through the local church. This includes practical advice on topics such as:

- Engaging parents in youth ministry
- Guiding students holistically in their beliefs, behavior, and relationships
- Equipping adult leaders who can serve as role models
- Working with pastors, staff, and church leaders
- Helping parents develop rites of passage for their children as they move into adulthood
- Raising expectations for adolescents to encourage them to grow toward maturity

Based on years of personal experience and practice, Engaging Generation Z provides everything youth ministers need to equip, grow, and encourage today's young people to follow Christ and to take their student ministry to the next level.

Tim McKnight (PhD, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary) is director of the Global Center for Youth Ministry and associate professor of youth ministry and missions at the Clump Divinity School of Anderson University. He has served in the pastorate since 1991 with much of that time in youth ministry. He currently pastors Mosaic Church of Anderson, a multiethnic, multigenerational church plant.

Ephesians

A Commentary for Biblical Preaching and Teaching

Gregory S. MaGee and Jeffrey D. Arthurs

KERUX COMMENTARIES

Kerux Commentaries enable pastors and teachers to understand and effectively present the main message in a biblical text

Each volume uniquely combines the insights of an experienced Bible exegete (trained in interpretation) and a homiletician (trained in preaching). These two authors work together to explain the essential message for the original listeners or readers, unpack its timeless truth, and then provide a contemporary restatement and communication insights for the key biblical concept. Every book is a resource designed and written with the real needs of the pastor and teacher always in sight, providing many ways to creatively express the principal thought in a biblical passage.

Based on the Big Idea preaching model, Kerux enhances the reader's ability to deliver a message that is biblical, cohesive, and dynamic.

Talking About Ethics

A Conversational Approach to Moral Dilemmas

Michael S. Jones, Mark J. Farnham, and David L. Saxon

An accessible introduction to ethics through engaging dialogues

Talking About Ethics provides the reader with all the tools necessary to develop a coherent approach to ethical decision-making. Drawing on ethical theory, the authors show how these theories play out in relation to a wide variety of moral questions using a dialogue format. The chapters follow three college students as they discuss today's most important issues, including:

- Immigration
- Capital punishment
- Narcotics legalization
- Abortion
- Premarital sex
- Gender identity

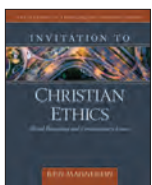

The engaging dialogues in each chapter illustrate how these topics often take shape in the real world and model critical thinking and Christian decision-making. Study aids in each chapter include overviews, sidebars, reflection questions, glossaries, and recommended reading. Ideal as a textbook for undergraduate ethics courses, this volume is also accessible enough for high school classes and personal study.

Michael S. Jones (PhD, Temple University) is professor of philosophy and theology at Liberty University and president of the Virginia Philosophical Association. He is also executive editor of the Journal for the Study of Religions and Ideologies.

Mark J. Farnham (PhD, Westminster Theological Seminary) is professor of apologetics at Lancaster Bible College and Capital Seminary and founder and director of Apologetics for the Church.

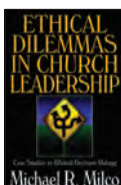

David L. Saxon (PhD, Bob Jones University) is a Bible professor in the College of Bible and Church Ministries at Maranatha Baptist University. He is a regular contributor to Front Line, the periodical of Foundations Baptist Fellowship International.

Biblical Worship

Theology for God's Glory

Benjamin K. Forrest, Walter C. Kaiser Jr., and Vernon M. Whaley, editors

BIBLICAL THEOLOGY FOR THE CHURCH

A biblical theology of worship spanning both the Old and New Testaments

While many books on worship focus on contemporary trends, Biblical Worship plumbs every book of the Bible to uncover its teaching on worship and then applies these insights to our lives and churches today. A team of respected evangelical scholars unearths insights into a variety of issues surrounding worship, including:

- The Old Testament concept of worship
- Worship before the exodus
- Worship in the Old Testament feasts and celebrations
- Worship in the psalms of lament and thanksgiving
- The New Testament concept of worship

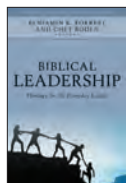

Pastors, worship leaders, instructors, and anyone who wants to grow in their knowledge of the Bible's full teaching on worship and how it applies today will benefit from this volume of the Biblical Theology for the Church series.

Benjamin K. Forrest (EdD, Liberty University) is associate professor of Christian education and department chair at Liberty University School of Divinity, and the author of Biblical Leadership.

Walter C. Kaiser Jr. (PhD, Brandeis University) is distinguished professor emeritus of Old Testament at and president emeritus of Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary in South Hamilton, Massachusetts. Kaiser has written over forty books, including Toward an Exegetical Theology: Biblical Exegesis for Preaching and Teaching.

Vernon M. Whaley (DMin, Luther Rice Seminary) is associate vice president of program development for Trevecca University's School of Music and Worship Arts in Nashville. He is the author of several books, including Worship Through the Ages.

The Parables

Jesus's Friendly Subversive Speech

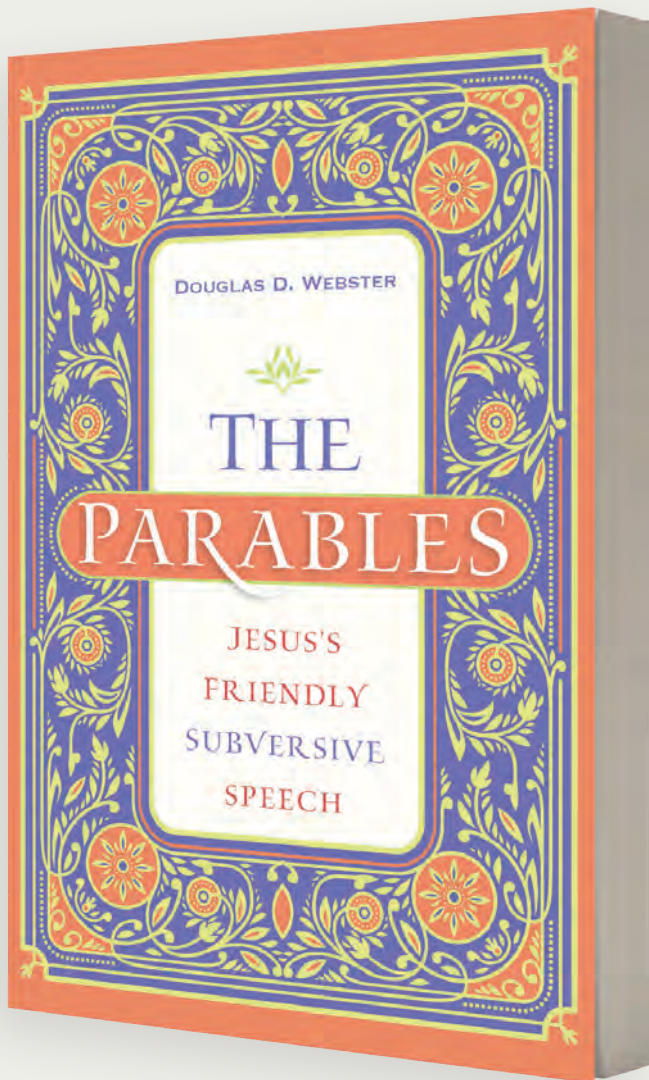

Douglas D. Webster

A comprehensive study of Jesus's parables that emphasizes personal reflection and application

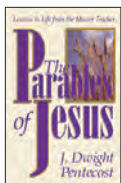

Jesus's parables used familiar situations to convey deep spiritual truths in ways that are provocative and subversive of the status quo. Prayerfulness was pictured as a persistent widow. The joy of salvation in the homecoming of a lost son. Love of neighbor through a marginalized Samaritan. If we're not careful, we can easily miss details in the parables that reveal their subtle meanings as well as their contemporary relevance.

Drawing on thorough scholarship as well as theological, pastoral, and practical insights, Douglas Webster leads the reader through each of Jesus's parables, pointing out the important nuances that allow us to understand them and be transformed by them. Reflection questions at the end of each chapter can be used for personal or group study, and an appendix for pastors provides guidance for preaching the parables. Pastors, Bible teachers, and serious students of Scripture will find this tour through Jesus's parabolic teaching to be a rich resource for both the mind and the soul.

Douglas D. Webster (PhD, University of St. Michael's College) is professor of pastoral theology and preaching at Beeson Divinity School, Samford University. He served as pastor of First Presbyterian Church of San Diego for fourteen years as well as at churches in New York City, Denver, and Toronto. His other books include Follow the Lamb: A Pastoral Approach to the Revelation and Preaching Hebrews: The End of Religion and Faithfulness to the End.

John Through Old Testament Eyes

A Background and Application Commentary

Karen H. Jobes

THROUGH OLD TESTAMENT EYES

A New Testament commentary steeped in the Old Testament

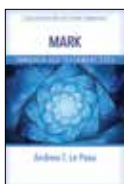

Through Old Testament Eyes is a new kind of commentary series that illuminates the Old Testament backgrounds, allusions, patterns, and references saturating the New Testament. These links were second nature to the New Testament authors and their audiences, but today's readers often cannot see them. Bible teachers, preachers, and students committed to understanding Scripture will gain insight through these rich Old Testament connections, which clarify puzzling passages and explain others in fresh ways.

In John Through Old Testament Eyes, Karen Jobes reveals how the Old Testament background of the gospel of John extends far beyond quotations of Hebrew prophecy or mentions of Old Testament characters. Jobes discusses the history, rituals, images, metaphors, and symbols from the Old Testament that give meaning to John's teaching about Jesus—His nature and identity, His message and mission—and about those who believe in Him.

Avoiding overly technical discussions and interpretive debates to concentrate on Old Testament influences, volumes in the Through Old Testament Eyes series combine rigorous, focused New Testament scholarship with deep respect for the entire biblical text.

Karen H. Jobes (PhD, Westminster Theological Seminary) is Gerald F. Hawthorne Professor Emerita of New Testament Greek and Exegesis at Wheaton College and Graduate School. Jobes is the recipient of the 2015 Evangelical Christian Publishers Association Gold Medallion for her commentary 1, 2, and 3 John.

Make Disciples of All Nations

A History of Southern Baptist International Missions

John D. Massey, Mike Morris, and W. Madison Grace II, editors

A contemporary evaluation of the history and present status of Southern Baptist missions

For more than 175 years the International Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention has been sending missionaries around the world to spread the gospel of Jesus Christ. IMB missionaries have planted nearly 14,000 churches and have seen more than 77,000 decisions for Christ. The IMB has also cultivated strategies and methods that have been adopted by numerous other missions groups. Make Disciples of All Nations tells the story of this groundbreaking organization, including its most recent developments.

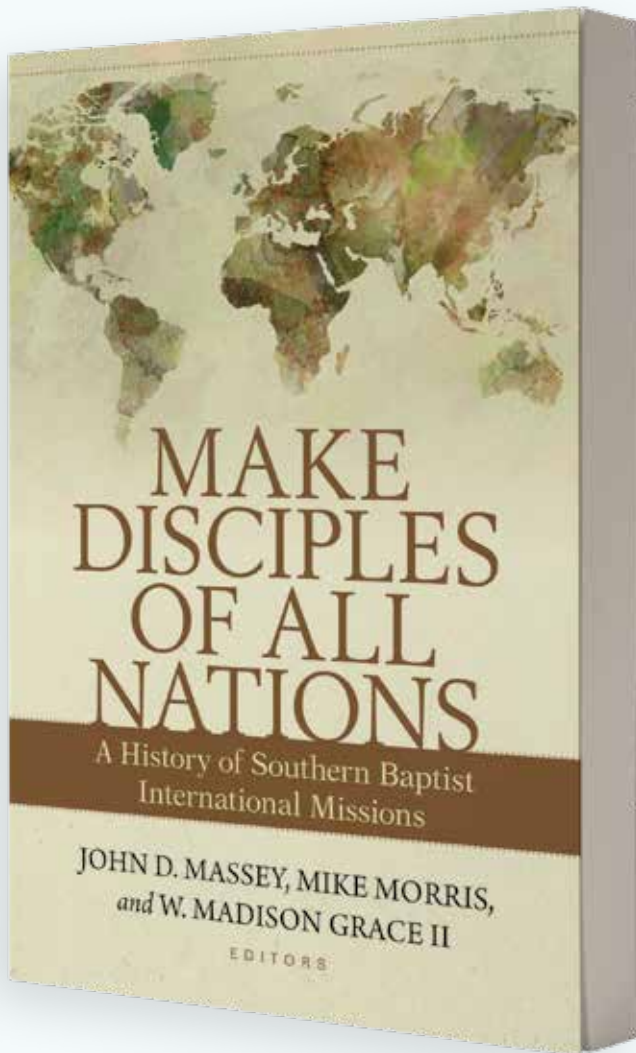

Besides recounting IMB's history, the contributors to this volume critically evaluate its approach and policies, as well as examine its controversies, regional expansions, and organizational changes. The concluding chapter explores how Southern Baptist missions can best adapt to an era of global Christianity.

Students, missionaries, and those supporting them will be informed and encouraged by this account of one of the oldest and largest missions organizations in the world.

John D. Massey (PhD, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary) is dean of the Roy J. Fish School of Evangelism and Missions and associate professor of missions at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Mike Morris (PhD, Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary) is Ida M. Bottoms Chair of Missions, associate dean of applied ministry and mentorship, and senior professor of missions at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

W. Madison Grace II (PhD, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary) is associate professor of Baptist heritage and director of the Oxford Study Program at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

A History of Evangelism in North America

Thomas P. Johnston, editor

Encounter North American evangelism from the Great Awakening to the present day

A History of Evangelism in North America guides readers on a tour through circuit riders and tent meetings to campus evangelism and online ministries. Academic research combines with gospel faithfulness and love for the lost in this historical survey of evangelism methodologies and legacies from the early 1700s to today. Encountering these prominent evangelism movements will inspire innovation and courage in the call to spread the good news of Jesus Christ.

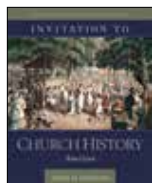

Few Christians recognize the historical backgrounds of various evangelistic ministries, their theological traditions, or their driving principles. With both depth and clarity, contributing experts deliver current scholarship on twenty-two evangelists and ministries, including the following:

- John Wesley and itinerant preachers
- The camp meeting movement
- The American Bible Society and Bible distribution evangelism
- The Navigators and personal discipleship
- Billy Graham and crusade evangelism
- Campus ministries
- The Jesus Movement
- Twenty-first-century evangelistic approaches

A History of Evangelism in North America promises to have lasting value for those who study evangelism, missions, Christian history, and the church in North America.

Thomas P. Johnston (PhD, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary) is senior professor of evangelism at Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and president of the Southern Baptist Professors of Evangelism Fellowship. He is the author of numerous books and articles on the theology of evangelism and historical studies of evangelists, including Consumed! A Passion for the Great Commission.

Invitation to Evangelism

Sharing the Gospel with Compassion and Conviction

Timothy K. Beougher

INVITATION TO THEOLOGICAL STUDIES

Essential guidance for a lifestyle of sharing God's good news with a lost world

What exactly does it mean to “evangelize” in a Christian sense? And how is such evangelizing supposed to be done? Longtime pastor, evangelist, and professor of evangelism Timothy K. Beougher answers these questions and more from a range of theological, historical, and practical perspectives. Demonstrating God’s goodness in evangelism through relatable anecdotes, Bible teaching, and encouraging instruction, Beougher welcomes believers into the experience of stepping out in faith on behalf of people God loves.

Most Christians know they should be sharing the good news of Jesus Christ with nonbelievers, and most also know they aren’t witnessing very well, or even at all. They need help internalizing the content of gospel proclamation and identifying the best ways to make evangelism a natural part of their lives. Invitation to Evangelism guides readers through the key issues of the gospel message, evangelism methods, and witnessing models so they are ready and excited to move out in faith as everyday evangelists.

Beougher’s teaching revolves around following essential aspects of being an evangelist:

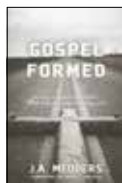

- Having compassion as the motivation for evangelism
- Understanding the good news of Jesus Christ
- Seeing lost people as persons God loves
- Relying on the power of the Holy Spirit
- Paving the way for new believers to share their faith eagerly with others

Timothy K. Beougher (PhD, Trinity Evangelical Divinity School) is Billy Graham Professor of Evangelism and Church Growth and associate dean of the Billy Graham School of Missions, Evangelism, and Ministry at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. An active pastor, evangelist, professor, and evangelism scholar for over thirty-five years, Beougher is the author of numerous books about evangelism history and practice, including Richard Baxter and Conversion, Evangelism for a Changing World, and Overcoming Walls to Witnessing.

... a great way for anyone to learn more about what it means to trust, love, follow and serve the Lord.

Sinclair B. Ferguson

Chancellor's Professor of Systematic Theology, Reformed Theological Seminary, Jackson, Mississippi

An insightful tour of many key figures in church history, this little book helps others to see just how God worked through those He chose to face critical moments. Catherine expertly weaves together the magnificence and flaws of these individuals, helping young people see that God indeed works through fallen yet hopeful believers, as He can through each of us today.

Luke H. Davis

Bible department chairman, Westminster Christian Academy, St. Louis, Missouri

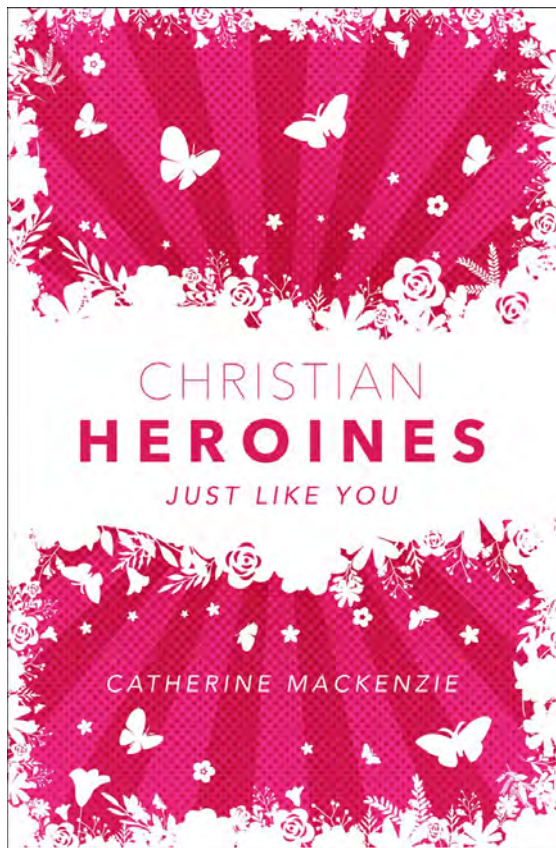

... MacKenzie has wisely shown the reader the flaws in these all too human heroes, which is also inspiring. She shows us that God can use his people to do his work and bring glory to his name in spite of their feet of clay.

Ruth

Becoming a Girl of Loyalty--True Girl Bible Studies

DANNAH GRESH

Ruth was a young woman who lived at a time when people seemed to only care about themselves—not God. And certainly not each other. So imagine how remarkable it was when Ruth gave up everything—her comfort, home, and even hope for a future—to travel to a foreign land to help her friend in need. Though Ruth would have nothing, she went anyway! And as you’ll see, the story turns out pretty amazing. In Ruth: Becoming a Girl of Loyalty, a six-week study, you’ll enter Ruth’s story and learn how you can also become loyal, loving, and godly.

True Girl Bible Studies feature important women from the Bible so that from their examples, we can learn what it looks like to be a True Girl. Each study is designed to help moms lead their daughters deeply into the Word of God so that they can develop a steady love for Scripture. Together, moms and daughters can discover what it means to be a True Girl after God’s own heart.

When her friend was in need, Ruth remained loyal.

Jack vs. the Tornado

Tree Street Kids 1

AMANDA CLEARY EASTEP

The Tree Street Kids live on Cherry, Oak, Maple, and Pine, but their 1990s suburban neighborhood is more than just quiet, tree-lined streets. Jack, Ellison, Roger, and Ruthie face challenges and find adventures in every creek and cul-de-sac—as well as God's great love in one small neighborhood.

In the first book of the Tree Street Kids series, 10-year-old Jack is shocked to discover his parents are moving from their rural homestead to the boring suburbs of Chicago. Full of energy and determination, Jack devises a plan to get himself back to his beloved farmhouse forever. Only three things stand in his way: a neighbor in need, a shocking discovery, and tornado season. Will Jack find a solution? Or is God up to something bigger than Jack can possibly imagine?

The Hunt for Fang

Tree Street Kids 2

AMANDA CLEARY EASTEP

The Tree Street Kids live on Cherry, Oak, Maple, and Pine, but their 1990s suburban neighborhood is more than just quiet, tree-lined streets. Jack, Ellison, Roger, and Ruthie face challenges and find adventures in every creek and cul-de-sac—as well as God's great love in one small neighborhood.

In Book 2 of the Tree Street Kids series, Jack and his friends learn some survival skills at the church's summer camp. They'll need them! Determined to find Ruthie's lost cat and protect Jack's new puppy from Fang, the local wildlife, the kids head deep into the woods. Just when they think they've cornered the "enemy," the kids realize someone has gone missing. Is Fang up to no good? Or will faith and friendship be enough to see the kids make it out alive?

CHILDREN'S

I Love You to the Stars

When Grandma Forgets, Love Remembers

Crystal Bowman and Doug Groothuis
Illustrated by Robert Sauber

Helping children find their way through the confusing world of a loved one developing dementia

Grandma has come to live with Noah's family, and he couldn't be happier. They put together puzzles, read books, and play with Sunny, Grandma's dog. And she never misses a chance to tell Noah that she loves him "to the stars."

But lately Grandma hasn't been the same. She does funny things like putting her shoes in the bathtub, and not so funny things like getting lost and forgetting how to read. Mom explains that Grandma's brain has gotten sick, and it makes her forget things. That means it's their job to remember for her—and to make sure she always knows that she is loved as much as she loves them.

With thoughtful, child-friendly language and warm, painterly illustrations, I Love You to the Stars is a beautiful book that helps children understand the often-scary reality of a grandparent or older friend experiencing dementia. It can be read with an adult, along with the discussion questions included at the end of the book, or pulled from the shelf by little hands whenever they need a reminder that love is always there.

Sing and Play Big Bible Truths

Bethany Darwin

- Songs, activities and stories for little ones
- Memory verses with hand actions
- Familiarity and repetition to help learning

You only get to raise your children once and your little ones need to know the big truths of God – Christ, sin, salvation and the gospel. Sing and Play Big Bible Truths is the perfect tool to introduce babies and toddlers to the Bible truths they need to learn now and for later on in life. Bethany Darwin uses the tools of repetition, familiarity and interactive activities to build crucial theological foundations.

Bethany Darwin

Bethany is a full-time homemaker who recently 'retired' from children's ministry after serving for twenty years in four different churches, including most recently thirteen years at the United Christian Church of Dubai. She is a graduate of Samford University where she studied Human Development and Family Studies, and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary (MA in Christian Education – Children's Ministry). She loves to write materials to help children better understand the gospel, and has written for several publications. She also spends a lot of her free time writing a food blog and playing with their 1-year-old son.

Experienced in leading children's ministry in churches for over 20 years, Bethany Darwin is an expert at equipping parents with the tools and ideas they need to nurture their children's understanding and excitement about God. Definitely a needed resource for parents!

Kate Nel
 Homeschool mom of three toddlers

What a fun way to get weighty doctrine into the minds and souls of toddlers! We heartily recommend this book.

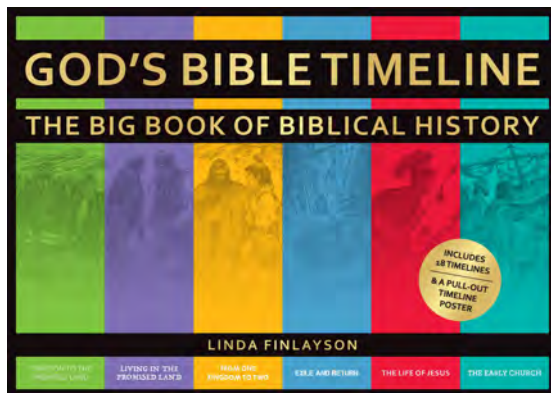

John and Keri Folmar
 Senior Pastor, United Christian Church of Dubai; Author

Bethany is a gifted, God-centered teacher. 'Sing and Play Big Truths' is clear, creative, and fun – a great resource to bless our little brothers and sisters in Christ

Gloria Furman
 Pastor's wife, Mom of four, Author of 'Missional Motherhood' and 'Alive in Him'

Biblical. Practical. Inspirational. I particularly valued the clarity on the gospel and the age-appropriate strategies for sharing the gospel with this age group.

This lovely and well-organized book will be a great help for people young and old to fit together the pieces of the history of God's saving works so that they can see more clearly what God has accomplished in his Son.

Joel R. Beeke

President, Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary, Grand Rapids, Michigan

Here is a 'Big Book' on big stuff. Paul says that God's ways are 'untrackable'—and they are, but he has left some of his 'tracks' in redemptive history and Linda Finlayson has pursued them in this attractive, colourful, vibrant tome, in which she has pulled together the strings of biblical history and in such concise form has placed them in your lap.

Dale Ralph Davis

Respected Author and Old Testament Scholar

Clearly written, with helpful commentary on key people, events, context, and theological significance, and beautifully illustrated, this book will be a great resource for parents and Sunday school teachers as they seek to engage children with the biblical story.

Carl R. Trueman

Professor of Biblical and Religious Studies, Grove City College, Pennsylvania

This book looks to be a most suitable help for all wanting to understand the flow of God's salvation history.

God Made Us Just Right

Allia Zobel Nolan; illustrated by Katy Hudson

No need to compare—God has a reason for creating everyone just the way they are!

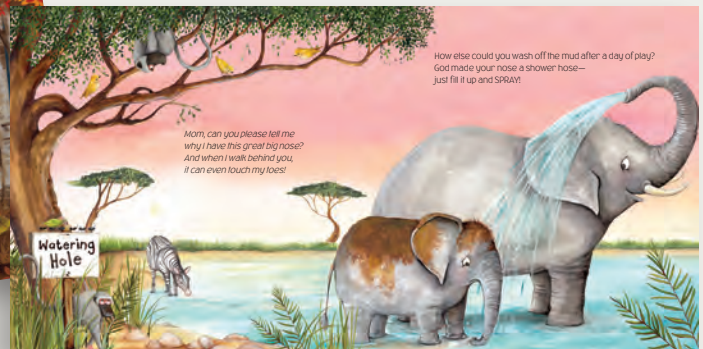

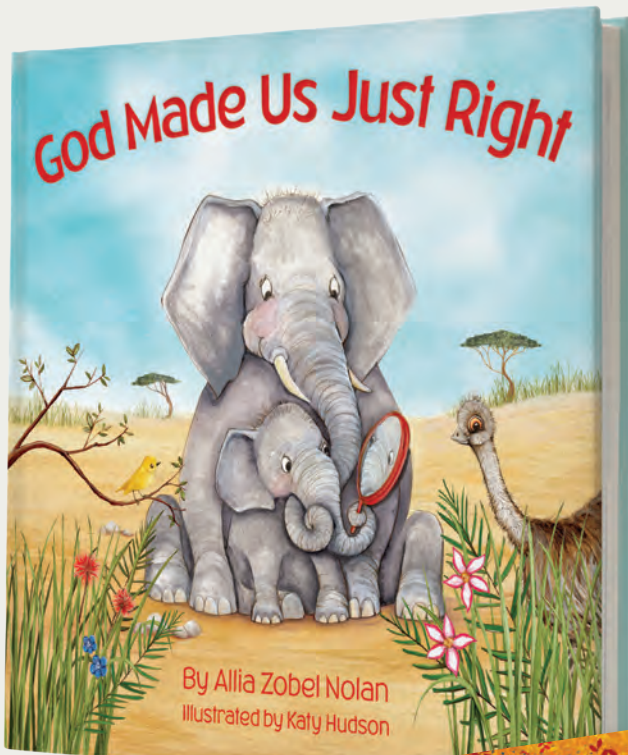

How come puppies get to bark, but kittens can't? Why do elephants have such long trunks when other animals don't risk tripping over their noses? What's the point of all these differences?

Through playful illustrations of animals and warmhearted words in rhyme, young children will see God as their loving creator. God Made Us Just Right helps them realize that God has a reason for creating us just the way we are.

Kids who are always asking, "Why, Mom?" and "How come, Dad?" will easily relate to the back-and-forth question-and-answer format. It's a book the whole family will enjoy.

PADDED BOARD BOOK $11.99

Allia Zobel Nolan is the author of nearly 150 books for children and adults, with more than 2.5 million copies in print. A former journalist and senior editor of religious books for Reader's Digest Children's Publishing, Zobel Nolan now pens original children's and adult books for various publishers. She lives in Connecticut and Tipperary, Ireland.
